BRIDGEMAN PACKET

Cowes, August 9. Yesterday was brought into Stokes Bay the Crowned Wine-Eat of Copenhagen, John Peterson Master, a Dogger Pink of about 150 Tuns, from Bayonne; She was taken the 25th of the last Month in the Chops of the Chanel, by Captain Ralph Corbett, Commander of the Bridgman Packet-Boat, bound home from the West-Indies: But on the 28th a French Privateer of St. Malo, of 26 Guns, took the said Packet-Boat, the Captain having first sunk the Mail, and also retook the Danish Ship, which they plundered, put the Packet-Boat's Men (except the Captain, his second Mate, and two of his Men) on board her, and let her go. After this a Dutch Ship from Smirna retook the Bridgman; but being pursued by several French Ships, she could not bring her off, and so sunk her, by firing two Shots into her Hold, and afterwards made her own Escape. The Men belonging to the Packet-Boat, who came ashore in the Danish Ship, as abovementioned, report, that they left Jamaica on the first of June.

News is just arrived confirming the report we had of the death of Capt. Richard Veale, commander of the Prince of Wales Packet. He had many years been a commander in the merchants service in the Lisbon trade, and greatly esteemed for his fidelity and bravery; he greatly distinguished himself in the command of a privateer in many engagements in the late war, and received several marks of the merchant's favours for defending the trade and annoying the enemy's privateers.

Capture of the DUKE PACKET which left Falmouth 1756 Dec 4th

Kingston in Jamaica, July 2. Last Wednesday night arrived in this town, Mr. Matthew Coxe, who, on the 21st of January last, was taken in the Duke Packet, Capt. Owen Phillippe, about six leagues to windward of Cape Tiberon, by the American privateer, Capt. Blanco. After a resolute defence of near 11 glasses, it fell at last a calm, and the privateer rowed under her quarter, and boarded her, on which Captain Phillippe ordered the colours to be struck, and called for quarter, which the privateer's people refused giving, and instantly cut Captain Phillippe's nose almost off, and one ear, and gave him upwards of 40 different wounds, killed the master, cut the mate in pieces, and cut and wounded most of the people in the joints of their arms and wrists, by which they lost the entire use of them. Captain Phillippe's son had his skull fractured, and has near lost the use of his arm, as has Mr. Coxè, having merely been able to feed himself; which cruelty lasted near an hour after the engagement, without the packet's people offering to make the least resistance to the Frenchmen. On demanding the reason of this extraordinary piece of barbarity, the Officers of the privateer insolently told them, that it was for so few mens daring to make defence against a French privateer. Next morning they carried them into La Cateait Bay, where they unanimously agreed to put every man to death, which they certainly would have done, were it not for the Merchants living on the Bay, who coming on board the packet, bought the small arms of the Frenchmen, instantly loaded them, and took possession of the quarter-deck, which they kept till the packet's people were sent on shore. They were that same night forced to travel by land to Ocays, without the smallest refreshment; by which means many fainted on the road, and were obliged to be left to such assistance as the inhabitants would give them. On their arrival at Ocays, Mr. Coxe, and those that had strength to travel thither, were sent to the hospital, and on the 15th of May, Mr. Coxe had his discharge from the Surgeon, and the next night, in company with the Doctor and Chief Mate of the Indian Prince, Capt. Watson, (that was taken last January) and a free negroe belonging to Bristol, in a small boat about eight feet keel, without masts or sails, only one oar and about six ounces of bread each man, they got to the Isle of Vache, where they cut a mast and thauts, made maho ropes and twine, and with the assistance of three shirts made two sails, and put to sea on the 17th of May, at 2 p. m. At eight the same evening it began to rain and blow very hard at S. E. which obliged them to bear away before the sea; the bad weather continued for eight days, with a strong current to windward, which drove them on the Isle of Cuba, after being there three days without any subsistence, except gulph-weed, on which they subsisted; on the 8th day they went ashore, and travelled to a place called Macauco, about 16 leagues to leeward, from whence they were sent by the Commander to Byamo, and from thence they were sent back to Cuba, where the Governor confined them four days without food, or the liberty of going out to purchase any; afterwards they had the liberty by day to seek provisions, in which time they purchased a boat with some gold that they had saved; and after nine days confinement, the Governor obliged them to bring off what English prisoners had escaped from the French to that place, making with themselves 15: on Thursday the 23d of June, about the evening, they left Cuba, and got on shore at Manchioneal Bay, where they left their boat, and travelled from thence to this town on foot.

There was a young Lady passenger on board the packet, whom the French also treated with the utmost cruelty and indecency, turning her cloaths over her head, &c. and could scarce be prevailed on to spare one gown for her to come on shore with. The packet had 2 carriage guns, 6 swivels, and 26 men; the privateer had 10 carriage guns, 16 swivels, and 110 men: in the engagement Capt. Blanco was killed, and one of his mates, about 15 private men, and upwards of 20 wounded, besides dismounting 5 of their guns. The packet received no damage during the engagement, but only in cool blood as above related. The French privateer began the engagement under a St. George's pendant at the mast head; after some time she hauled it down, and fought under a red pendant only, which was shot away after engaging seven glasses, and they did not hoist any more colours during the rest of the engagement.

Taking of the LADY AUGUSTA PACKET, April 1761

Extract of a Letter from Capt. Watson, Commander of the Lady Augusta Packet Boat, to his Majesty's Post-Master-General, dated Teneriffe, May 13, 1761.

" I failed from Falmouth the 21st of April, with one Mail on board, for the West-Indies, in Company with the Besborough Packet, and a Ship for Lisbon, the Wind fresh at N. W. The 23d in the Morning parted the Besborough, when we were chased three Hours by a large Ship, but could not come up: The 25th parted the Ship for Lisbon. The 27th, at Ten in the Morning, saw two Sail to the Westward, upon a Wind, standing to the Eastward; when I immediately altered my Course to S. by E. the Wind blowing strong at N. and soon found one of them gave me Chace; upon finding the Chace came up with me, I started all the Water I could come at, and did every thing else necessary for the Advantage of sailing; and at Two in the Afternoon, judging her to be a French Privateer, hove my Boat over-board, and got ail clear to engage: At Three the Chace hoisted French Colours, and began to play her Chace Guns. At half past Three I haul'd up S. W. to bring my Starboard Guns to bear, and returned the Fire, loading with Cross-Bar, in Hopes, and endeavouring to carry something away. At Four he fell under my Larboard Quarter; when I bore round away to rake him, and gave ter; when I bore round away to rake him, and gave him the Larboard Broadside; to avoid which, as well as falling on board, he bore away; when I fell close along-side, and, to my great Misfortune, found her to be a large Frigate, mounting 22 Guns, exclusive of Swivels, and full of Men fore and aft, at final Arris. There being not the least Hope of getting clear, I was obliged to strike, at Half past Four, in Lat. 36 39. Long. 16, having first thrown the Mail over-board.

" She proved to be the Amethyste, King's Frigate, Capt. Ludi, of 26 Nine-Pounders on one Deck, and six Six-Pounders on the Quarter-Deck and Forecastle, with about 350 Men, fitted out by the Merchants of Nants, and by what I could find, was bound to the Coast of Guinea and West-India, being full of Goods and Provisions, though they said they were bound to the East-Indies. May the 1st they took the York Guineaman, of Liverpool. The 2d at Night they landed all the English (but two or three out of each Ship) on the Leewardmost Part of the Grand Canaria. They took both Prizes with them. I brought all my People to this Island the 7th, where they were all received on board the Launceston Man of War.

" I hope to be at Home as soon as this; but as it is so precarious, am willing to lose no Opportunity in giving the earliest Intelligence."

PACKET ROUTE CHANGE

END OF WEST INDIES PACKETS SAILING TO PENSACOLA & CHARLESTOWN

NEW ROUTE

General Post-Office, September 6, 1768.

His Majesty's Postmaster General having been pleased to establish a sufficient Number of Packet-Boats to sail between Falmouth and New York, Charles Town, and the West-India Islands, to support a regular Monthly Correspondence to and from these Kingdoms and all Parts of His Majesty's extensive Dominions in America.

PUBLIC NOTICE is hereby given, that the several Mails for America, upon this New Arrangement, are to be made up at this Office on Wednesday the 5th of October next, and will continue to be dispatched from hence in the same Manner upon the first Wednesday in every Month.

The Mail for New York will contain the Letters for all the Provinces on the Continent of America, from Virginia Northwards. That for Charles Town will include the Letters for North and South Carolina, Georgia, and East and West Florida, except for Pensacola, the Letters for which Place will be forwarded from Jamaica by every Opportunity. And the Mail for the West Indies will contain the Letters for Barbadoes, all the Leeward Islands, and Jamaica, from whence the Packet-Boats are, instead of proceeding to Pensacola, to return immediately to Falmouth.

Upon the Arrival of these several Mails from hence at Falmouth, the Packet-Boats are to proceed with them to Sea immediately, Wind and Weather permitting; but if they should be unavoidably detained one or more Days, such Letters as come hither, or may be put into this Office, will be sent every Tuesday, Thursday, and Saturday to Falmouth, for the Chance of the Packets under Sailing Orders, and if sailed, they will be forwarded by the next Boat in Turn.

Great Inconveniences having arisen to the Public by returning Letters for the Postage; Their Lordships, for the Accommodation of Correspondence, leave it now to the Option of the Writer to pay or not beforehand to any Part of His Majesty's Dominions either in Europe or America, except to Gibraltar or Port Mahon.

All Persons however are particularly to take Notice, that Letters and Packets from any Part of Great Britain, Ireland, or America, for all Places beyond the Seas not in His Majesty's Dominions, are to pay at the Office where they are put in, the full Port to London, besides the Foreign Rates they may be chargeable with, to prevent the Necessity of their being opened and returned for the Postage.

By Command of the Postmaster General,
Anth. Todd, Secretary.

A Table of the Rates of Postage, and a List of the Places to which there is an Every-Day Post, will be given to any Person who may apply for them to the Chamber-Keeper here.

ANNA TERESA PACKET

Extract of a letter from capt. Lawrence, of the Anna Teresa packet boat, St. John's, Antigua, Aug. 10.
 "The last time I wrote to you was from Grenada, since which I beg leave to acquaint you of my having been at St. Vincent's and Dominica, and also of my arrival here yesterday morning, and that I shall leave this place to-morrow for Montserrat. I wish this was my last port, as I am rather fearful I shall run the risk of being taken before I get down to Jamaica; there are several armed vessels in these seas belonging to the Americans, one of which is a ship of 16 guns, belonging to Philadelphia, called the Reprisal, commanded by one Weeks, who has, I have been credibly informed, taken seven vessels, all laden with sugar for England, one from Grenada, with 500 hogheads of sugar. The Sharp sloop of war fell in with this privateer, and engaged her for half an hour, but she got into St. Pierre's, in Martinico."

WEYMOUTH PACKET CAPTURE

A Letter from Captain Charles Flynn, of the Weymouth Packet Boat, dated at Sea the 21st of August, 1777, to Anthony Todd, Esq; Secretary of the General Post-Office, says, "I have only Time to acquaint you of my great Misfortune of being taken the 28th, or rather in the Morning of the 29th ult. about Lat. 46. N. and Long. 30. W. Distance from the Lizard about 315 Leagues, by the Oliver Cromwell Frigate of War, Seth Harding, Commander, mounting 14 nine and 6 Pounders, and carrying 155 Men; a very unlucky Affair, after being engaged the Day before with the Defence Brig, of 14 Carriage Guns, and as we have been told since by the Cromwell's People, 130 Men, and 16 Swivels, both Vessels belonging to the States of Connecticut. The Brig was commanded by Samuel Smedley; we were close along-side of each other for two Hours and an half, when she sheered off very much shattered, and we after her; but she had the Heels of us, especially as our Ties and Braces were shot away. We had nine Men wounded, but slightly; two of whom were, Captain Judd late of his Majesty's Sloop Antelope, Admiral Gayton, and Robert Holden, Esq; of Jamaica. George Mathews, one of the wounded People, is dead."

NO DOUBT HILLSBOROUGH PACKET TAKEN

There remains no Doubt but that the Hillsborough Packet Boat is taken. She was bound to Jamaica, and soon after she left Dominica, fell in with an American Privateer of 18 Guns, whom she engaged for a considerable Time, but having lost many of her Hands, her Hull much damaged, and her Rigging shot away, she was obliged to strike.

HILLSBOROUGH PACKET ARRIVES

LONDON, Thursday, Feb. 19.
Yesterday arrived a mail from the West-Indies, brought by the Hillsborough packet Capt. Blackhall, to Falmouth. She sailed from Jamaica the 29th of December. She was reported to be taken on her passage from England to the West Indies by an American privateer, soon after she had passed Dominica.

HILLSBOROUGH PACKET REPORTED TAKEN

The Hillsborough packet-boat, with the West India mail on board, is reported to be taken by an American privateer, two days after she left Dominica. She was seen engaging and firing, and, as the privateer was of very great force, it is supposed she must be taken and carried either into Martinico or Guadeloupe.

GRENVILLE PACKET

Last Saturday advice was received by a letter from Madeira, that the Grenville packet boat, with the mail for the West-Indies, fell in, off Madeira, with two American privateers, and must have been taken if the postmaster of Madeira had not sent out some armed vessels to her assistance, who obliged the privateers to sheer off. The only damage done on board the Grenville was, the steward had great part of one of his hands shot off. At the beginning of the attack the Captain flung the mail by the side of the packet ready to sink; but it was cut off by a chain-shot, and immediately sunk.

1778-04-27 Reading Mercury

The Post Masters General have ordered a considerable Sum of Money to the Captain and Officers belonging to the Grenville Packet-Boat, and 10l. to each of the common Sailors, for their gallant Behaviour and Bravery in an Engagement for three Hours with two American Privateers, at different Times, and obliging them to sheer off.

Long. 14, 32, mounting 16 six and four Ponders, who took her, after an Engagement of two Hours, in which Capt. CARTERET PACKET SAILS PAST PENSACOLA

Wednesday the Dispatches brought by the Carteret Packet-Boat, Captain Cartwright, from Pensacola, which arrived at Penzance on Saturday last, were brought to Town. They contain an Account of the taking of Pensacola by the Spaniards, assisted by some French and Americans, on the 24th of last Month. The Packet failed on the 22d on a Cruize; but a Boat from Pensacola being sent after her, had the good Fortune to find her, and put the Dispatches on board. On the 28th she passed the Port, and saw the Spanish Men of War, with their Colours flying in the Harbour, together with some French and American Ships, which she also knew by their Colours. The English Force at Pensacola consisted of Part of the 60th Regiment, about 600 Foreigners, and about 150 Militia.

EXTRACT FROM HILLSBOROUGH PACKET LOGBOOK

Kingston, Jamaica, June 24. Monday last arrived at Port Royal, the brigantine Charming Nancy, captain George Archison, from London, Madeira, Antigua, and St. Eustatia.

By this vessel from the Windward Island, advice is received, that his majesty's packet boat the Hillsborough, capt. George Blackhall, which sailed from Port Royal the 29th of April last, being taken off Bermudas, by an American sloop privateer of 10 guns, in company with an armed schooner and three sloops, and carried into Grenada, from whence captain Blackhall and his crew got to St. Christopher's and Eustatia.

Extract from the log book of the Hillsborough packet,

George Blackall, Esq; commander.

"On Friday the 19th of May, saw a sail on the weather bow; immediately tacked from her. At 11 o'clock A. M. saw five sail ahead; immediately tacked from them, set all sail; they gave chase. Saturday the 20th, between five and six P. M. saw another sail in chase. At day-light, we found we had gained about three miles by rowing; at noon a breeze sprung up. At ten o'clock, the 21st, A. M. light winds, still employed rowing; two of the headmost sloops hoisted American colours, and began to fire their broadsides to rake us; as soon as our shot could reach them, we hoisted our colours, and kept firing our stern chases at them without shortening sail; at four P. M. finding the rest of the fleet must be up with us in a very short time, and that we were not a match for such a force, we sunk the mail, and hauled down the colours. In a few minutes they were within hail, and ordered us to hoist out our boat, and the captain was told to go on board a brig with a broad pendant, being the commodore; she was called the Lively, commodore Belt, from Baltimore, in Maryland."

The Hillsborough packet had 6 four and 3 three pounders, and 57 men. The squadron consisted of the brig Lively, commodore Belt, mounting 12 six and four pounders, and 45 men; the sloop Lincoln, capt. Harrison, 8 four pounders, 30 men; sloop Porpoise, 10 six and four pounders, 38 men; schooner Friendship, Bull, and a schooner, — Jones.

PACKET CAPTAINS DUTY

The Captain of a Packet cannot always prevent his Ship from being taken; but it will always be considered as his Fault if the Mail is suffered to fall into the Hands of the Enemy. When a Packet is taken there are two Things for which the Captain is undoubtedly answerable, namely, that the Mail be thrown over in Season, and that it be loaded with Weights sufficient to sink it.

VIGILANT PACKET

The Vigilant packet, which is arrived, was formerly called the Comet. She failed from Jamaica the 28th of July, and was captured, but afterwards retaken by the Guay Trouin floop, and carried back to the island. Off Cape Clear she was chased by several large ships, which was the reason for her not going into Falmouth.

FRENCH LETTER RE SPEEDY & SWIFT PACKETS CAPTURE

Extrait of a letter from the Chevalier de Blachon, Lieutenant in the navy, commander of his Majesty's frigate la Friponne, to the Marquis de Cafrics, minister of the naval department, dated on board the Friponne, Fort Royal harbour, Martinique, Aug. 11.

"I have the honour to acquaint you of my arrival here, with his Majesty's frigates la Friponne and Refolue, after a cruize of 50 days to the windward of Barbadoes and Antigua, during which I have captured the two advice boats, the Speedy and Swift, mounting each 26 guns, and 80 men; they had on board dispatches for the island of Barbadoes, St. Lucia, Antigua, and Jamaica, together with the Queen cutter of 10 guns, and the following merchant ships, the Spy, Adventure, Peggy, and Success. The advice boats I have brought in here, and sent the other prizes to Guadaloupe, where they are since safely arrived."

NEW SAILING PLAN BEGINS IN NOVEMBER

1787 LEEWARD ILE: January - May sailings, found on preceding page

START OF NEW COMBINED SAILING PLAN

General Post-Office, October 27, 1787.

A Mail will be made up at this Office on the First and Third Wednesday of every Month for the West Indies.

Their Course will be for Barbadoes, St. Vincent, Grenada, and from thence to St. Kitt's and Jamaica, where, instead of being detained to receive the Answers to all their Letters from the internal Parts of the Island, they will stay but Forty-eight Hours, and return by the Windward Passage to England; and the next Packet will take up the Answers to the Letters delivered by the first.

The Packets will leave at Barbadoes all Letters for the Leeward Islands, which will be conveyed by a Brig to Dominica, Antigua and St. Kitt's, where they will be delivered to the English Packets upon their Arrival from Grenada, and forwarded with the rest to Jamaica and England.

This is a temporary Plan, 'till another upon a larger Scale can be carried into Effect.

*By Command of the Post-Master General,
Anth. Todd, Sec.*

START OF A JAMAICA AND LEEWARD ISLAND SAILING PLAN INVOLVING TWO ISLAND SCHOONERS

JAMAICA PACKET

Packet stops at Barbados where a Mail Bag is delivered for the Leeward Islands, and proceeds to Jamaica.

After which the Packet returns direct to Falmouth.

The FIRST Island Schooner, then proceeds with the Mail for, St Vincent, Grenada, Dominica, Antigua, Montserrat, Nevis and St Kitts, where the Tortola mail is left for the arrival of the Leeward Ile Packet.

LEEWARD ISLANDS PACKET

Packet stops at Barbados where a Mail Bag is delivered for the Leeward Islands and proceeds to St Vincent, Grenada, Nevis, St Kitts and Tortola.

After which the Packet returns direct to Falmouth.

The SECOND Island Schooner, then proceeds with the Mail for, Dominica, Antigua, Montserrat, Nevis and St Kitts.

The Schooner remains for answers at each stop for 48 hours, except at Nevis and Tortola where its no more than 24 hours, returning to Barbados.

NEW PLAN - USING TWO ISLAND SCHOONERS

General Post-Office, November 3, 1792.

A Plan having been strongly recommended by the Governors and other Persons of Consideration residing in the Leeward Islands, as well as by the West India Merchants and Planters residing in London, for the Improvement of their Correspondence by employing Two Schooners to convey the Mails through those Islands, instead of One as at present, the Post-Master General have consented to make a Trial of it for Six Months:

Notice is therefore hereby given, that when the Jamaica Packet, with the Mails from hence of the First Wednesday in the Month, arrives at Barbadoes, One of the Schooners will proceed from thence, with the Leeward Island Mails as at present, for St. Vincent's, Grenada, Dominica, Antigua, Montserrat, Nevis and St. Kitt's; where she will leave the Mail for Tortola to wait the Arrival of the Leeward Island Packet with the Mails of the Third Wednesday in the Month from England.

When the Second, or Leeward Island Packet, arrives at Barbadoes, the other Schooner will take the Mails for Dominica, Antigua, Montserrat, Nevis and St. Kitt's; and, after staying Forty-eight Hours for Answers at each Island (excepting at Nevis and St. Kitt's) will return to Barbadoes, whilst the Packet will proceed to St. Vincent's and Grenada, and, instead of calling at Dominica, Antigua and Montserrat, as at present, will go directly to Nevis and St. Kitt's, and from thence to Tortola, and then return to Falmouth.

It is calculated that, by the Packet and Schooner each taking a different Course during the same Time till they meet at Nevis, instead of the Packet performing the whole Voyage, will save Thirteen Days in every Voyage.

By Command of the Post-Master General,

Anth. Todd, Sec.

BOYD PACKET

To-morrow evening the mails for America and the West Indies will be made up at the General Post-office, and dispatched to Falmouth, from whence they will be conveyed out in his Majesty's Packets the HALIFAX for Halifax and New York, and the BOYD, a temporary packet, for Barbadoes and Jamaica.

1793-06-04 Morning Chronicle

On the 3d inst arrived at Falmouth, his Majesty's packet Boyd, from Jamaica. She brings a melancholy account of the contagion in the West Indies, the effects of which she has fatally experienced, having buried her Captain, (Dillon) gunner, boatwain, carpenter, cook steward, seven seamen, and a French passenger. She was obliged to put into the Havannah, having only six men able to keep the deck, and fortunately got a supply of hands there, which enabled them to proceed to England.

ANTELOPE PACKET

Accounts are received by the mail from Jamaica of a severe engagement which had taken place between the Antelope packet, and the Atalanta, a French privateer, of eight three pounders. The Antelope had sailed from Jamaica with the mail for England, and fell in with the privateer off the Island of Cuba. The engagement was desperate, and lasted two glasses. The Master, the Mate, and Boatwain of the Antelope, were killed nearly on the outset of the engagement. On the side of the French 40 men fell in the action. The French privateer struck her flag, and was taken into Port Royal. The Captain of the packet was by some unfortunate circumstance prevented from sailing on this voyage.

ANTELOPE PACKET and L'ATLANTE 1793 Dec 1st & 2nd

ACTION BETWEEN the ANTELOPE and L'ATLANTE.

THE Antelope packet sailed from Port Royal with the mails for England, on the 27th November. On the 1st December, not far from Cumberland Fort, on the coast of Cuba, she perceived two schooners, which stood directly for her, and hoisted Spanish colours. Mr. Curtis, Master of the packet, suspecting them to be privateers, bore away for Port Royal, but L'Atlante outsailing her consort, persevered in her chase, which she continued till four o'clock, when the wind falling, she rowed and came up with the packet; and after exchanging several shots, the privateer sheered off. At five o'clock in the following morning, she rowed off again, grappled the Antelope on the starboard side, and used every endeavour to board her; but these endeavours were bravely repulsed by the crew and passengers of the packet, and with considerable slaughter.

Mr. Curtis, Master of the packet, unfortunately lost his life early in the action, as did the Steward, and Monsieur Le Roy de la Grange, from St Domingo, Secretary to Colonel Loppinot, who was also on his passage to England. The Mate was shot through the body, but great hopes are entertained of his recovery; the second Mate died of a fever, and the command of the packet devolved on the Boatswain, who, with the brave fellows left to support her, and the assistance of the passengers, repulsed the crew of the privateer in every attempt they made to board, which they perceiving, made an effort to cut away their grappling; but the Boatswain not being inclined to part with them, jumped aloft and lashed the privateer's square-sail-yard, to the Antelope's fore-shroud, descended upon deck, and with his mess-mates gave the enemy a few volles from their small arms, which obliged them to call out for quarter, which was complied with, notwithstanding they had the bloody flag hoisted during the whole of the action: The prize was taken immediate possession of, and at eleven o'clock the next morning, safely lodged in the harbour of Annetto Bay.

The following is a list of the killed and wounded on board the privateer:—1st Captain wounded, since dead—2d Captain wounded, since dead—30 men killed during the action—3 since dead of their wounds—14 wounded—16 unhurt—65 men, consisting of French, American, and Irish.

L'Atlante was fitted out at Charlestown, and had been out a month, during which period, she had captured a Bermudian brig.

The behaviour of Mr. Nodin, formerly a midshipman, is said by Colonel Loppinot, to surpass description. He stood by the helm and worked the ship, armed with a musket and pike, which he alternately made use of; when he perceived the men climbing the quarters, he quitted the helm, and with the pike dispatched all that came within his reach, returning at proper intervals to right the vessel. With this instrument and the musket he killed several men, and continued his astonishing exertions for more than an hour and a quarter.

When the enemy called for quarter more than 20 men lay dead on the decks, and several more had fallen into the water; on boarding her, they found a very large quantity of ladies' and gentlemens' wearing apparel, pillaged, no doubt, from some vessels they had previously fallen in with.

A representation having been made to his Honour the Lieutenant-Governor, and to the House of Assembly, of the gallant conduct of the officers and crew belonging to the Antelope packet, the sum of 500 guineas was immediately voted to be distributed, as follows, viz.—200 guineas to the widow and family of Mr. Curtis, the late master—100 to the Mate—100 to the Boatswain—and 100 to the crew.

CARTERET PACKET AVOIDED YELLOW FEVER

The Carteret packet, just arrived from the West-Indies, had not a single man sick since she left England, which circumstance is attributed to the Captain's giving particular directions to his Master to burn gunpowder wet with vinegar constantly during the passage outwards and homewards, in different parts of the ship.

CUMBERLAND PACKET ELUDES THE ENEMY

The Duke of Cumberland Packet, on her outward-bound passage, owed her safety to an ingenious device;—When within a day's sail of Martinique, she was chased by two schooner privateers, one of which gained on her; at night, however, fetting a light afloat, the Enemy pursued it, and thus the Packet escaped; she did not touch at Barbadoes, but carried the mail for Grenada, Tobago, &c. to Martinique.

ACTIVE PACKET

The Active Packet, —, from Falmouth for Jamaica, is arrived at Barbadoes, after being chased by a French brig and a cutter, and beating off a French sloop.

On the 21st of October, Barbadoes distant 25 leagues, the Active fell in with a large French sloop, which, in spite of their endeavours, got along-side; and, at half past three P. M. brought them to action. An obstinate running fight was continued till eight o'clock P. M. and the sloop then sheered off, apparently in a very crippled state. The Active, by carrying a press of sail, received considerable damage in her stern and rigging during the action; but no person on board her was hurt. She was preparing to sail again with the least possible delay.

ACTIVE PACKET

The following letter from Capt. Clements was on Saturday received at the Post Office, for the information of the owners of the Active packet: "The Active packet boat, Capt. W. Clements, (the Captain is on shore to build a new packet,) was captured on her homeward-bound passage from the West Indies, on the 30th of Sept. last, off Bermuda, by the Voltigeur privateer: the carpenter, cook, steward, and 2 seamen were left on board the Active;

the rest of the crew, with Lord T. Fitzroy, a passenger, were put on board the privateer on the 5th of October. The Active parted from the privateer in a severe gale of wind, and arrived in the Delaware on the 15th following. It is supposed that the privateer has foundered, as she had not been heard of when the steward, carpenter, and cook left New York on the 31st of Oct. in the Countess of Leicester packet. The privateer had only 3 days provisions on board, which she took out of the Active."

Certain intelligence is received that the Active packet-boat, Capt. Philips, which sailed on the 28th of August, with the mail for England, has been taken by a French privateer, and carried into the Delaware.

PRINCESS ELIZABETH PACKET

The Hon. Capt. Stopford, of the Phaëton frigate, has captured and sent into Falmouth the French privateer L'Active, mounting 20 guns and 116 men. The Frenchman, during three cruises, had taken a great number of British vessels, among which was the Princess Elizabeth packet, Capt. Grey, from Jamaica, with the mail and dispatches, which the Captain, before his surrender, threw overboard. The Princess Elizabeth was sent into Nantes, where the crew and following passengers from the West Indies are prisoners:—

Lieutenant Colonel Clinton, 66th Regiment.
Major Leigh, 6th West-India Regiment.
Capt. Hamilton, 68th Regiment.
Myn Heir Van Kal, late Governor of Rio.

1797-03-10 London Lloyd Evening Post

—The ships of war on the Jamaica station had lately captured many vessels of the Enemy, particularly Spanish merchantmen.—These particulars are collected from Capt. Gutherac, commander of L'Active French privateer, who had captured the Princess Elizabeth packet from Jamaica, as mentioned above.

PORTLAND PACKET

The Portland Packet, Captain John Rogers, which carried out the Leeward Mails of the first Wednesday in August last, had an engagement, of an hour and a half, with a French Privateer of 14 Guns, the day before she arrived at Barbadoes, which she beat off, and would have taken, but for the damages she sustained in her masts and rigging in the engagement. The Portland had only one man wounded, who lost his leg. The Privateer is supposed to have lost several men, of whom she had a great number on board.

1796-12-29 Derby Mercury

The Jonah, Capt. Goodall, from St. Kitt's, which had she left the 24th of November, brings intelligence that the privateer which the Portland engaged and captured near Montserrat, carried eight guns and sixty men, forty-nine of whom were killed and wounded.—The engagement lasted about three quarters of an hour, during which time the privateer was lashed by the bowsprit to the chains of the Portland. None of the great guns were fired in this engagement. —Mr. Nathaniel Taylor, the Master of the Portland, was shot by one of the privateer's crew after she had struck; who was immediately fired at and killed by Captain Renier, a passenger on board the packet. There were several other passengers on board, but their names are not known, except Mr. Cunningham, who unfortunately was killed in the action.

1797-01-09 London Lloyd Evening Post

The privateer which the Portland packet engaged off Barbadoes, was called the Arcoul, of 16 guns, and 90 men, of whom twelve were killed, and several wounded.

It is supposed the Portland sailed from St. Kitt's about the 24th of October, but has not since been heard of.

Mr. Taylor and Mr. Cunningham were the only persons on board the packet who received any hurt.

The Swallow Packet, that left Falmouth the 24th of February last, for the West Indies, was taken near Barbadoes on the 27th of March, by the Triumphant, French privateer, of 18 guns and 110 men.

PRINCE ERNEST PACKET

The Prince Ernest Packet, which failed from Falmouth on the 24th of October, with the Leeward-Islands Mail of the 18th of that month, was captured (as will be seen by our Plymouth letter) by the Belliqueux French privateer, on her homeward-bound passage, on the 11th instant. Mr. Large and Mr. Master, two passengers, were sent to St. Maloes in the Packet, the crew were afterwards captured in the Belliqueux privateer by the Melampus and Seahorse.

Extract of a Letter from Plymouth, Jan. 22.
 "Arrived, the Belliqueux French privateer, of 18 guns and 130 men, from St. Maloes, taken on the 16th inst. by the Melampus and Seahorse frigates: the privateer had captured the Prince Ernest packet, Capt. Schuyler, from Tortola, on the 11th inst. 40 leagues West of Scilly. She had been out ten days and had taken nothing else."

CAPTURED and MISSING PACKETS

From the 1st of January to the 15th October last, twenty packets failed from Falmouth for the West Indies. Fourteen have returned from thence; five are captured by the enemy, and one is missing. The names of the packets taken are, the Swallow, the Sandwich, the Grantham, Prince Ernest, and Portland.

KILDARE PACKET

CARTERET PACKET
Accounts were yesterday received in town of the capture of the Carteret packet, Capt. Taylor, on her voyage from Jamaica, on the 18th of March, by the Bellona French privateer, who carried her into Bourdeaux.

The Marquis of Kildare packet, which was captured on the 6th inst. by La Rancuna a French privateer, of 14 guns and 110 men, on her homeward bound voyage from Lisbon, was recaptured three days afterwards by the crew and passengers, within sight of Corunna, the original captors having been put into a boat to make the best of their way to the land, while the packet crowded all the sail she could for England, and arrived at St. Ives, a small port in Cornwall, in rather a distressed state, on the 20th instant.

PRINCESS ROYAL PACKET

Falmouth, March 21.—Accounts have been received of the capture of the Princess Royal packet, Captain Cotesworth, on her homeward-bound passage from the Leeward Islands, on the 27th of last month, in lat. 47. 31. long. 17. 5. after having sunk her mails and dispatches, by the Courier French privateer, Captain Arnould, of 14 guns, and 156 men.—The latter failed from Nantes on the 15th of February, and had captured nothing before the Princess Royal packet. This privateer was afterwards captured by his Majesty's frigate Revolutionaire, which retook also the packet, and sent them both to Cork; but unfortunately the passengers of the packet, and several of the seamen were lost, on removing from the packet to the privateer by the boat upsetting. The passengers unfortunately lost were Mr. Richard Ayling, of London; Messrs. Stael, Ubbe, and Glaarbotts, Swedish and Danish Gentlemen, and Mr. Nott, the Steward of the Packet.

The Chesterfield packet, which left Falmouth for Jamaica on the 11th of June last, we are sorry to say, was taken on Sunday, the 21st of July, off the east side of the island, and not more than three leagues distant from it, after an obstinate resistance, perhaps, as any that our naval history can furnish, as will be seen from the following account, from Mr. Mather, the Master;—

“On the 21st inst a strange sail appeared on our weather bow; she had no fore-topmast up, which made us suppose she was one of our droggers; but she soon ran up her fore-topmast, hoisted Spanish colours, and bearded us enough by 7 A. M. to gall us considerably with her two long twelves; by a shot from one of which, Captain Morgan of the 5th West-India regiment was wounded, but I am happy to say not dangerously.—Our boarding nets were now up, two of our four-pounders placed aft, and we were all in high spirits for a brush at the Downs, although we perceived that their deck swarmed with men. Our stern chasers did great execution, and we maintained a running fight till one P. M. when the little wind there was died away, and we were quite becalmed. The enemy now took advantage of their long sweeps, amounting to 32, and coming along-side made three very vigorous efforts to board, but were as often repulsed with great slaughter; and their Captain, who was wounded in many places, fell from our netting on his own deck. They now dropped a net, and raked us dreadfully; and as we lay like an unmanageable log on the water, our Captain badly wounded, and Mr. Downing, the mate, mortally; our ammunition expended, even that for the small arms; rigging, masts, and rigging cut to pieces; Captain Blight thought it prudent to save the lives of the remainder of the crew by striking to the enemy. Here, however, some difficulty occurred, for the colours had been tacked by one of the passengers above the mizen-top, and a sailor in the act of tearing them down had a piece of his trousers carried away by a canister-shot. Too much praise cannot be attached to the passengers for their cool and determined conduct, particularly to Captain Hoy, of the 15th Royal Irish regiment, and Mr. Thomson, a student of Christ Church College, who never quitted the deck during the whole contest. We have to lament that Mr. Thomson was wounded severely in the act of carrying poor Downing to the hatchway; but as he was left behind at St. Jago de la Cuba, under the care of an excellent French surgeon, I have every reason to think he may soon recover. Every merit is due to Capt. Blight, who fought like a lion till his wound obliged him to leave the deck. When Capt. B. saw the intention of the enemy to board, he directed the mail to be thrown overboard, at the same time informing his crew, that they were not to consider this as a signal to strike, but merely the performance of his principal duty as the Captain of the packet.”

EARL of LEICESTER PACKET

The Leicester packet, which carried out the Leeward Island Mail of 17th April, was captured, after a very smart action, on 26th May, 1805 leagues to the westward of Barbadoes, by a privateer carrying 14 guns and 92 men. On board the packet one man was killed and two wounded.

DUKE of MARLBOROUGH's encounter with FRENCH PRIVATEER CONFIANCE

The particulars of the action brought by the Duke of Marlborough packet, on her outward voyage, are thus entered in her log-book:—"On the 28th of March, the day previous to our making Barbadoes, in lat. 13 deg. 7 minutes and a quarter past twelve P. M. saw a schooner on the larboard bow bearing S. S. W. on a wind, standing to the northward; at five she wore and stood towards us—all hands to quarters, and cleared for action, down all studding-sails; at seven, within gun-shot, fired the stern-chasers and hoisted our colours—set all studding-sails and royals; at twenty minutes past ten she closed on the starboard quarter, when a general engagement ensued, chiefly with musketry by the enemy; at eleven, attempted to board, but was repulsed with great slaughter, by firing our great guns with round and grape shot; at five minutes after eleven she ceased firing; at half past eleven dropped astern to repair her damages, and remained during the night about three miles off; at eight A. M. came again within musket-shot, when we renewed the action with our stern-chasers; at nine she hauled on the starboard quarter, and at half past ten hauled off to the N. W.; at the same time a brig hove in sight on the starboard beam, lying to with main-top-sail to the mast.—In the above action Captain James was slightly wounded in the right foot; Mr. M'Kinnan, the Master, by a cartridge catching fire and exploding in his face; Mr. Pore, the Mate, slightly by a musket-ball in his arm, and three seamen, viz. Robert Clement, dangerously in the right thigh; Thomas Solomon, both arms broken, and John Gibbert, slightly on the right arm, by a splinter.

DUKE of MONTROSE TAKEN BY LA CONFIANCE FRENCH PRIVATEER

The elevated tone of courage and decision which has lately marked the conduct of the commanders and crews of our Falmouth packets, has excited the astonishment of the nation, and in a new instance which we have now to record will justly claim a nation's regret. The Princess Charlotte packet, Captain Keer, which arrived on Wednesday in 37 days from the Windward Islands, brought passengers Mr. Gibbon, master, and the steward of the Duke of Montrose packet, Captain Dynelly, which sailed from Falmouth on the 11th November with mails for Jamaica. On the 9th December, about 50 leagues to windward of Barbadoes, the Montrose fell in with La Confiance French schooner, of six 6-pounders and one long 18-pounder on a swivel, and carrying 90 men. About eight in the morning of the 12th, after a chase of twenty-two hours, the Frenchman got up with the packet and laid her aboard, when a desperate action ensued which lasted three hours, during which the brave Captain Dynelly, Mr. Bone, his mate, and four seamen, were killed, and two men [another account says five] wounded. Mr. Gibbon, surviving officer, seeing that further resistance was vain, reluctantly sunk the mail and struck his colours. The enemy had nine men killed and 12 wounded. The packet was carried into Guadeloupe, from whence Mr. Gibbon and the steward got to Antigua.—When the Lords of the Post-Office shall reflect upon the daring spirit which pervades the packets, and the waste of valuable lives it may occasion, they will probably either resolve to arm these vessels more efficiently than they are at present, or disarm them altogether. It is cruel to expect men to fight and conquer with their hands tied.

Jamaica packet calls at Curacao

Additional packets are to be established to carry mails from Falmouth to Surinam, Berbice, and Demerara, and to return by Barbadoes and Martinique. The Jamaica packets will in future call at Curacao on their outward passage. This new arrangement will require three new packets to be added to the establishment at Falmouth.

1811 FALMOUTH PACKET ACCIDENT

WRECK OF THE PRINCE OF WALES PACKET - 1811 July 19

LOSS OF THE PRINCE OF WALES PACKET.

The packet Prince of Wales, Captain Proctor, with mails and passengers from the Bahamas and Great Britain, left Port Royal on the 8th of July, under convoy of his Majesty's schooner Barbara, Lieutenant DOUGLAS. In the night of the 16th of the same month, she lost sight of her convoy; and about half after one o'clock a.m. on Friday following (the 19th), having been driven from her course by a strong current, while going at the rate of five and six miles per hour, she unfortunately got on Saltpond Reef, on the south-west side of Henegua, one of the Bahama Isles. The wind abated nothing of its violence, she did not stop there, but passed over two other reefs; and, after beating against the rocks for about half an hour, disengaged herself, and once more floated; meanwhile the sails were taken in, and the anchor let out. There being now little wind, and the night somewhat dark, it was deemed prudent, under all the circumstances, to await the return of day-light. The spectacle which presented itself between the hours of four and five was truly awful and sublime. The moon, which was seen at intervals through lazy clouds, afforded sufficient light to discover rocks on every side, and that all attempts to extricate the vessel from this dangerous situation were rendered abortive. On board an awful silence prevailed, every one dreading lest the next moment should sacrifice us to the fury of the element. The Captain, cool and collected, assembled the crew, and exhorted them to persevere in their duty and endeavours, and we were safe. Signal-guns of distress were fired; and to complete this awful scene, the pumps were at work, throwing out more than two feet water per hour from an increasing leak. The long and anxiously wished for day at length dawned, but to afford no chance of escape, at least for the packet. There being no alternative measures were instantaneously planned, and as speedily adopted, for the conveyance of every thing practicable to the shore; and this, although uncertain whether an inhabitant was to be found on the island. Amidst the gloom that hung over us, a sailor aloft descried a house and a flag-staff at some distance. A boat was lowered down, and the mails and passengers conveyed in it to the shore. The specie next occupied the attention of all on board, almost all of which, if not all was saved; not so the passengers' luggage, and very little of the provisions, of which there was saved not as much as would serve for a week's subsistence. Providentially not a life was lost. The leak increased; and, before the day closed, notwithstanding every exertion was made, the water rose to seven feet in the hold. It was considered no longer safe to approach her. Perceiving her, however, the next morning, with the stern fixed upon a rock, and bilged, a last effort was made with the boats to bring away what remained, but in vain, no more could be done. Tents were formed of the few sails that were preserved on the shore as a temporary shelter. —The only person resident on the island had it little in his power to be of service to us; his exertions were therefore feeble, and of little or no avail. Finding that we were on a side of the island where there appeared nothing but reefs and rocks, and where no vessels ever approached but such as met with a similar fate, and that vessels passed on the west side only, which was accessible, we removed thither to a position (the house and flag-staff mentioned) where we were likely to be seen, and where we should have to embark. The exertions of the officers and crew of the packet, assisted by the passengers, were very great in transporting the specie in boats about six miles to the place of embarkation. We were fortunate enough, soon after hoisting the signal of distress, to be perceived by the schooner Paragon, Knowles, of Long Island, then passing, which anchored off the spot where we then were; and in the course of the day the Spanish schooner la Perla, Pedro Blanco Casariego master, from Carthagena bound for Cadiz, put in for a supply of water. These two vessels afforded accommodation for the whole: Captain Proctor, the Surgeon, passengers, together with the mails, and specie, and some few of the crew, embarked on board la Perla, and the rest in the Paragon, and set sail on the 23d for Crooked Island, where we arrived, the former about five o'clock P. M. on the 24th, the latter this day, the 26th.

FALMOUTH, AUG. 23.—Arrived this day His Majesty's schooner Barbara, from Jamaica, forty-two days passage, from Crooked Island, with mails. She brings accounts of the loss of the Prince of Wales packet, on the Henegage Shoals; crew and cash are saved. Captain PROCTOR, and part of the crew of the Prince of Wales, are arrived in the Barbara.—Arrived the Adventure, Capt. TILLY, with mails from Jamaica, twenty-eight days passage, from Crooked Island, and has brought the remainder of the crew of the Prince of Wales packet;

1812 FALMOUTH PACKET AT WAR

CAPTURE OF THE PRINCESS AMELIA PACKET - 1812 September 15

AMELIA PACKET.

The following is an extract of a letter to C. SAVERLAND, Esq. His Majesty's Agent for packets at Falmouth, from Mr. RIDGARD, Mate of the Princess Amelia packet, giving an account of her unfortunate capture:—

"Hibernia, Downs, Oct. 23.
"SIR—I take the first opportunity of informing you that His Majesty's packet-boat, Princess Amelia, sailed from the island of St Thomas's, on Saturday, the 12th September, in company with the ships Hibernia and Phoenix, of London, and Neptune and Flora, of Lancaster, and parted company with them on the 14th.—On Tuesday, the 15th, at two, P. M. lat. 22. 24. long. 63. 08. we saw a schooner standing to the southward; at three, P. M. made the private signal with a gun; she immediately hoisted Spanish colours, tacked, and stood towards us. At six, she came within gun-shot. Supposing her to be an enemy, Capt. Moorsom ordered a shot to be fired at her; upon which she immediately hoisted American colours, crossed our stern and fired a broadside into us. The action then became general on both sides; the enemy keeping up a heavy discharge of m-ketry, and within pistol-shot. At half-past six, Mr. NANKIVELL, the Master, was shot through the head; and about twenty minutes afterwards, Capt. Moorsom was killed by a grape shot, which entered his left breast. At this time, myself and nine men being wounded, and one boy killed, besides the Captain and Master, and not being able to defend the ship any longer in so crippled a state, against a force so superior, at seven sunk the mail, and struck our colours. When taken possession of, she proved to be the Rossie, American privateer, commanded by Commodore BARNEY, of Baltimore, mounting 11 carriage guns, nine and twelve-pounders, with a complement of 95 men. I was taken on board the privateer, with the crew of the packet, except three men (badly wounded), and the Doctor and Steward. The next morning the packet made sail for Charlestown. The only passengers were, Mr. and Mrs. DYOTT, and a servant from Montserrat, who were permitted to remain in the packet.

I am, &c.
"WILLIAM RIDGARD, Mate."

KILLED.—Capt. Moorsom; Mr. John Nankivell, Master; and Thomas May, boy.

WOUNDED.—William Edmonds; John Hayman; and John Mackan, severely—William Ridgard, Mate; John Francis; James Jones; John Rodney; Lewis Brown; Robert Wright; and Thomas Bryant, slightly.

The Princess Amelia had only six guns and 28 men. These facts speak the high sense of honour which animated the heart of the lamented Cap^t. MOORSOM; and the bravery of his little crew,

ACTION OF THE TOWNSEND PACKET - 1812 November 23

GALLANT ACTION.

On several occasions, during the present war, the Falmouth packets have, in a most peculiar manner, been distinguished for beating off vessels of superior force, and, on some occasions, capturing the assailants. We have, this day, to record an action, which, in point of gallantry, has not been exceeded, we believe, in any instance during the war, though the issue was not so fortunate as that of some others.

The Townsend packet, Capt. Cock, which sailed from Falmouth for Jamaica, in October last, on the 23d of Nov. whilst in sight of Barbadoes, fell in with two American privateers, by which she was soon brought to close action. Capt. Cock and his brave crew, with four passengers, sustained the unequal contest with the utmost gallantry for two hours and a half, during which the crews of the privateers made several attempts to board, but were beaten off with considerable loss. At length the packet having five feet water in her hold—the main mast ready to fall over the side—the bowsprit and fore top mast gone—the maste killed, and ten of the crew and three of the passengers wounded—there being besides no prospect of the vessel continuing to swim—Capt. Cock reluctantly struck his colours. The privateers conceiving that it would be impossible to keep the packet afloat, plundered her of every thing valuable, and then gave her up to the captain and crew, in order that they might proceed to Barbadoes, into which island they succeeded in carrying her, and where the remains of the maste, Mr. Sedgmond, were interred with military honours.

The Force on both sides were as follows:

Tom privateer, Capt. Wilson, 16 guns, 12 and 9 pounders, and 1 long 18-pounder on a swivel, having 130 men on board.	Townshend packet, Capt. Cock, of 9 guns, six and nine pounders, having 32 men and boys, and 4 passengers on board.
Bona privateer, six guns, 12 and 9 pounders, 1 long 18-pounder on a swivel, and 80 men on board.

Whilst the Townshend lay at Barbadoes, a ship, belonging to Liverpool, which carried 18 guns, arrived there. She had been taken by the Bona, and re-captured by one of our cruisers. The Captain states that the Bona had suffered severely in the action with the packet, having but 80 left of her crew.

When Capt. Cock quitted the packet, at Falmouth, on Wednesday se'nnight, the crew gave him three cheers, which were returned from the boat.

CAPTURE OF THE SWALLOW PACKET - 1812 October 15

WASHINGTON CITY, Nov. 12.
Copy of a letter received yesterday by the Secretary of the Navy from Com. RODGERS:

U. S. Frigate PRESIDENT,
At Sea, Oct. 17, 1812.

SIR,

I have the honor to acquaint you that on the 15th instant near the Grand Bank, this ship, the Congress in company, captured the British King's Packet Swallow, Joseph Morphey, commander, bound from Kingston, Jamaica, to Falmouth. The rank of the commander of this vessel, is that of a master and commander in the navy. She had no cargo on board, except eighty-one boxes of gold and silver, amounting to between one hundred and fifty and two hundred thousand dollars:—The specie I took out of her, and had intended sending her to England in the character of a cartel, with her own crew: Having fallen in at this moment, however with the American schooner Eleanore, bound from Baltimore to France, dismasted, induced me to change my first determination, and instead of sending her to England have sent her to the United States in charge of the master and crew of the before mentioned schooner, who at the moment of writing this have charge of the Swallow with the schooner in tow, but which, as soon as the weather will permit, they intend abandoning, after having taken her cargo on board the Swallow.

I parted company with the U. States and Argus five days since; they are not however far from me at present, I apprehend.

We have not seen a single British vessel of war as yet, except one frigate, which the want of wind and the approach of night prevented our chasing with any effect; although from information afterwards received we must have passed very near a squadron of five frigates the evening preceding that on which we saw the one before mentioned.

I have the honor to be,

With the greatest respect, Sir,

Your obedient servant,

JOHN RODGERS.

The hon. PAUL HAMILTON,
Secretary of the Navy.

HINCHINBROOK PACKET

Falmouth, May 16.—Arrived the Hinchinbrook packet, with a mail from the West Indies, last from St. Thomas's in 35 days. The latter packet had a very severe action on the 1st of May with an American privateer, of 18 guns, and full of men, which she beat off after an engagement of two hours and twenty minutes, in which the enemy made two attempts to board, but were repulsed with great loss. The packet lost two men killed and eight wounded, three of them dangerously; and she is dreadfully cut up in her hull, sails, and rigging; and had four foot water in her hold at the close of the action.

The Hinchinbrook packet, whose arrival is announced at Falmouth, after an action of two hours and 20 minutes with an American privateer, had part of her Mail cut away in the slings by the enemy's shot, and we regret to hear it was sunk in the action.

NEW ROUTE for HAITI - JAMAICA - MEXICO - CUBA

The Postmaster-General has promulgated the following new regulation as to the mails for Mexico, St. Domingo, Cuba, and Jamaica :—

“ General Post Office, Oct. 9, 1826.

“ For the future an additional mail for Jamaica will be made up in London, on the third Wednesday in every month, to be conveyed by packet from Falmouth, which will also take out the mail for Mexico, which has hitherto gone by the Jamaica mail of the first Wednesday in every month. Letters for St. Domingo (Hayti), and for Cuba (Havannah), will be forwarded by this packet—those for St. Domingo to be charged as letters for Jamaica, and those for Cuba as letters for Mexico.

“ The postage upon such letters must be paid in this country. “ No letters for the other British West India Islands, or for Colombia, can be forwarded by this mail.

“ The first mail under this regulation will be made up on Wednesday, the 18th instant.”

White, forced her on the rocks, where she has become a complete wreck. The mail as well as everyone on board was saved.

1834 HAITI - JAMAICA - MEXICO: January - June sailings, found on preceding page

WEST INDIES and MEXICO PACKETS ROUTE CHANGE

An important change is to be shortly carried into effect in forwarding the West India mails. At present two mails are sent monthly to Jamaica and one received (the Mexican packets touching at that island on the outward but not on the homeward passage), and there is also a monthly packet to and from the Leeward Islands, so that although there are two packets, exclusive of the Mexico packet, to and from the West Indies monthly, there is in fact only one communication received from all the Islands. After the present month a packet will sail the 3d and 17th of every month, taking mails to Jamaica and the Leeward Islands, and, consequently, after the return of the Camden, which is to sail the 3d of January, there will be regular advices from as well as to the whole of the West Indies. The packet will go first to Barbadoes, whence a steamer will take the mail to Jamaica, touching at Jacmel in her way. The packet will then go on to St. Lucia, Martinique, Dominique, Guadaloupe, Antigua, Montserrat, Nevis, St. Kitt's, Tortola, and St. Thomas's, where she will wait until the steamer brings up the Jamaica mail, and then take her departure for Falmouth. The whole voyage will occupy eleven weeks.

After the present month the packets to Mexico will not touch at Jamaica, but it is in contemplation that they call at La Guayra and Carthagena on their outward passage.
