September - December dates of 1832 sailings are continued on the following page

In September 1832, a change was introduced to ship service to Brazil and Buenos Aires. Departures from Falmouth with a destination of Rio de Janeiro called at the Madeira Islands and Tenerife (the trip lasted from 100 to 110 days).

Another line of Branch Packets were established linking Rio de Janeiro to Montevideo and Buenos Aires with a connection to the Falmouth service.

2 shilling and 5 pence was the postage fee for single letters.
