

AIR MAIL SERVICE BETWEEN LONDON AND PARIS.

The Postmaster General has made arrangements for the establishment of an Air Mail Service between London and Paris. The service will include Paris, France generally, Italy, Spain, Switzerland, &c., and will begin on Monday next, 10th November.

Registered and unregistered letters, postcards, packets of printed papers and commercial papers, and samples will be accepted for transmission. Parcels and insured correspondence will not be accepted. A special fee at the rate of 2s. 6d. per ounce will be charged in addition to the ordinary foreign postage and registration fee, where payable.

Correspondence for transmission by the Air Mail Service will be accepted daily (except Sundays) at the London Post Offices indicated below. Letters must be handed over the counter, and the latest times of posting will be as follows:—

OFFICE.	LATEST TIME FOR POSTING.
	Unregistered Correspondence.	Registered Correspondence.
General Post Office (King Edward's Building)	11.0 a.m.	10.55 a.m.
Threadneedle Street... ..	10.45 a.m.	10.40 a.m.
Lombard Street	10.45 a.m.	10.40 a.m.
Parliament Street	10.45 a.m.	10.40 a.m.
Charing Cross	10.50 a.m.	10.45 a.m.
Western Central District Office	11.10 a.m.	11.5 a.m.
Western District Office	11.15 a.m.	11.10 a.m.
South Western District Office	10.40 a.m.	10.35 a.m.

The correspondence will be conveyed to Paris by aeroplane, arriving in normal conditions in time for delivery in Paris in business hours the same day. Correspondence addressed to Paris will thus be accelerated by about 16 hours.

Correspondence for places beyond Paris will be forwarded by the next available train. Correspondence for places in France will be delivered by express on arrival at the office of destination ; correspondence for countries beyond France will normally be accelerated by 24 hours.

In the inward direction, correspondence posted in Paris in the morning will normally reach London in time for delivery in Central London (i.e., E.C., W.C., E.1, N.1, N.W.1, W.1, W.2, S.W.1, and S.E.1) during business hours on the same day. It will be delivered immediately on arrival by express messenger without additional charge.

If it is known in advance that flight will be impossible on any particular day, a notice to that effect will be exhibited at the Offices mentioned above.

Responsibility for Registered Correspondence will be admitted under the usual conditions ; otherwise correspondence will be accepted at sender's risk.
