TREASURY WARRANT.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-six, for the regulation of the duties of postage, power is given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, from time to time, by Warrant under their hands, to alter and fix any of the rates of British postage or inland postage payable by law on the transmission by the post of foreign or colonial letters or newspapers, or of any other printed papers, and to subject the same to rates of postage according to the weight thereof, and a scale of weight to be contained in such Warrant, and from time to time, by Warrant as aforesaid, to alter or repeal any such altered rates, and make and establish any new or other rates in lieu thereof, and from time to time, by Warrant as aforesaid, to appoint at what time the rates which may be payable are to be paid; and it is provided that the power thereby given to alter and fix rates of postage should extend to any increase, or reduction, or remission of postage.

And whereas further powers are given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury by another Act of Parliament, passed in the eleventh year of the reign of Her Majesty, chapter eighty-five, for giving further facilities for the transmission of letters by post, and for the regulating the duties of postage thereon, and for other purposes relating to the Post Office.

And whereas it is expedient to alter the rates of postage now chargeable upon certain letters transmitted by the post between the United Kingdom and the East Indies, and to fix certain other rates in lieu thereof, in the manner hereinafter mentioned.

Now we, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in exercise of the power or authority in us for that purpose vested in and by the said hereinbefore recited Acts of Parliament, or either of them, and of all other powers enabling us in this behalf, do by this Warrant, under the hands of two of us the said Commissioners, by the authority of the Statute in that case made and provided, order, direct, and declare as follows:—

1. On every letter, not exceeding one half of an ounce in weight, posted in the United Kingdom, addressed to the East Indies, or posted in the East Indies, addressed to the United Kingdom, and transmitted by the post between the United Kingdom and any port in the East Indies, the said respective letters being conveyed between the United Kingdom and any port in the East Indies by British packet-boat direct or via Suez, there shall be charged, taken, and paid an uniform rate of postage (British and colonial combined) of nine pence; and on every such letter, when conveyed via France and by French packet-boat, there shall be charged, taken, and paid an uniform rate of postage (British, colonial, and foreign combined), of one shilling and one penny.

2. On every letter not exceeding one half of an ounce in weight transmitted by the post between any port in the East Indies and any other of Her Majesty colonies or any foreign country through the United Kingdom, the said respective letters being conveyed between any port in the East Indies and the United Kingdom by British packet-boat direct or via Suez, there shall be charged, taken, and paid for such transmission thereof respectively between the East Indies and the United Kingdom, an uniform rate of postage (British and colonial combined) of nine pence; and on every such letter when conveyed between any port in the East Indies and the United Kingdom via France and by French packet-boat, there shall be charged, taken, and paid for such transmission thereof respectively, between the East Indies and the United Kingdom, an uniform rate of postage (British, colonial, and foreign combined) of one shilling and one penny.

3. On every such letter so transmitted as hereinbefore in the first and second clauses of this Warrant mentioned, between the United Kingdom and the East Indies, exceeding one half of an ounce in weight, there shall be charged, taken, and paid the several further and additional and progressive rates of postage hereinafter mentioned ; that is to say :—

On every such letter exceeding one half of an ounce and not exceeding one ounce in weight there shall be charged, taken, and paid two rates of postage ;

And on every such letter exceeding one ounce and not exceeding one ounce and the half of another ounce in weight, three rates of postage ;

And on every such letter exceeding one ounce and the half of another ounce and not exceeding two ounces in weight, four rates of postage ;

And for every additional half of an ounce in weight of any such letter above the weight of two ounces there shall be charged, taken, and paid one additional rate of postage, and every fractional part of such additional half of an ounce in weight shall be charged as an additional half of an ounce in weight ; and each progressive and additional rate chargeable under this clause shall be estimated and charged at the sum which any such letter would be charged with under this Warrant if not exceeding one half of an ounce in weight.

4. On every letter transmitted by the post as hereinbefore mentioned between any port in the East Indies, and any other of Her Majesty's Colonies or any foreign country through the United Kingdom there shall be charged, taken, and paid over and above the several uniform rates of postage payable thereupon respectively under the provisions of this Warrant hereinbefore contained for the transmission thereof between the East Indies and the United Kingdom such further or additional rates of postage for the conveyance of every such letter between the port in the United Kingdom of the departure or arrival of the packet boat or private ship conveying the same and the colony or foreign country to or from which the same shall be forwarded as shall from time to time be charged and payable for British postage on letters posted or delivered at the port in the United Kingdom of the departure or arrival of the packet boat or private ship conveying the same and transmitted direct between such port and any such colony or foreign country, provided that in all cases where such additional rates include both inland and sea services there shall be deducted therefrom the sum of one penny in respect of the inland conveyance under this Warrant of every such letter sent through the United Kingdom.

5. In all cases in which any letter transmitted by the post under the provisions of this Warrant (except any letter transmitted via France and by French packet boat), shall pass through a foreign country any foreign postage payable thereon shall be charged and paid thereon in addition to the postage fixed by this present Warrant.

6. On every letter posted in the United Kingdom for transmission under the provisions of this Warrant, addressed to the East Indies, or posted for such transmission in the East Indies, addressed to the United Kingdom, the postage thereof shall be paid at the time of the same being posted either in money or by such letter being stamped with the proper postage stamp or stamps, which stamp or stamps shall in every case be affixed or appear on the outside of every such letter near the address, and shall be of the value or amount of the postage duty payable thereon under or by virtue of this Warrant.

7. If any letter shall be posted in the United Kingdom for transmission under the provisions of this Warrant, addressed to the East Indies, or shall be posted for such transmission in the East Indies, addressed to the United Kingdom, without any postage having been paid thereon in the mode hereinbefore required, or with a postage paid thereon in the mode hereinbefore required, which shall be less in amount than the rate of postage to which such letter would be liable under or by virtue of this Warrant, every such letter shall be forwarded charged with the deficient postage, together with a further and additional rate of postage of nine pence.

8. Nothing in this Warrant contained shall in anywise annul, prejudice, or affect any of the exemptions or privileges granted by or under the said hereinbefore recited Acts, or either of them, or by or under any other Acts of Parliament relating to the Post Office, or any of the privileges to which officers, seamen, and soldiers employed in Her Majesty's Service are by law entitled of sending and receiving letters by the post subject to the regulations and restrictions in respect of the same.

9. The term "East Indies" used in this Warrant shall be construed to mean every port or place in Her Majesty's dominions in Asia (China, Hong Kong, the Straits Settlements, Cochin China, Mauritius, Java, Borneo, and Australia excepted), the term "weight" used in this Warrant shall mean British weight, and the several other terms and expressions used in this Warrant shall be construed to have the like meaning in all respects as they would have had if inserted in the said first hereinbefore recited Act.

10. The several rates of postage fixed by this present Warrant on the letters transmitted by the post as herein respectively mentioned shall be in lieu of those now chargeable by law thereon.

11. The Commissioners for the time being of Her Majesty's Treasury may, by Warrant under their hands, duly made at any time hereafter, alter, repeal, or revoke any of the rates of postage hereby fixed, or any of the orders, regulations, conditions, or restrictions hereby made, and may make and establish any new or other rates, orders, regulations, conditions, or restrictions in lieu thereof, and from time to time may appoint at what time the rates which may be payable are to be paid.

12. This Warrant shall come into operation on the first day of March, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight.
