Frederic Kelly	17 Nov. 1819	Inspector of letter-carriers	£. s. d. 350 - -	- - On my appointment to the Office of Inspector of Letter-carriers in 1830, I was required to purchase the copyright of the Post-office London Directory. For some years subsequently the book was opposed by Robson's London Directory, of which I, nearly two years since, purchased the copyright; and the joint work is now published as the "Post Office Directory." The work is carried on by a large private capital, supported by the official resources. Under the circumstances I am not able to decide in what proportions the result is to be attributed to either, but the total difference between expenditure and receipts in the work published for 1844, was 1,276 £. s. 7 d. F. Kelly.
