DEFINITION OF TERMS USED IN THIS SCHEME

THE POST OFFICE INLAND LETTER POST SCHEME 2000 (POST OFFICE SCHEME IL1/2000)

The Post Office, by virtue of the powers conferred on it by section 28 of the Post Office Act 1969 and all other relevant enabling powers, hereby makes the following Scheme.

PART 1

INTRODUCTION

1. APPLICATION

1.1 This Scheme sets out the Post Office's conditions for:

- 1.1.1 accepting a letter posted in the United Kingdom for delivery to an address in the United Kingdom, the Channel Islands or the Isle of Man;
- 1.1.2 accepting a letter sent from the Channel Islands or the Isle of Man for delivery to an address in the United Kingdom;
- 1.1.3 providing other services in connection with inland letter post and letter post sent between the United Kingdom and the Channel Islands or the Isle of Man.

1.2 This Scheme should be read as one with the Post Office Overseas Letter

Post Scheme 1982, the Post Office Inland Parcel Post Scheme 1989, the Post Office Overseas Parcel Post Scheme 1982 and the Post Office Scheme for Franking Letters and Parcels 2000.

2. COMMENCEMENT, REVOCATION AND CITATION

2.1 This Scheme is made under section 28 of the Post Office Act 1969 and comes into operation on 27th April 2000. Together with the Post Office's Scheme for Franking Letters and Parcels 2000 it revokes and replaces the Post Office Inland Letter Post Scheme 1989 (Post Office Scheme L1/1989) and all published amendments to that Scheme. It should be referred to as the Post Office Inland Letter Post Scheme 2000.

2.2 The Post Office may amend this Scheme from time to time. Amendments will be published in The London, Edinburgh and Belfast Gazettes.

3. INTERPRETATION

3.1 The definition of terms used in this Scheme are set out in Schedule II to this Scheme.

3.2 Any reference in any other Post Office Scheme or in any document issued by or under the authority of the Post Office to a provision of any earlier version of the Inland Letter Post Scheme should be interpreted as a reference to the relevant provision of this Scheme and/or the Post Office Scheme for Franking Letters and Parcels 2000.

4. DISCRETION TO PROVIDE SERVICES UNDER THIS SCHEME

4.1 The Post Office may provide the postal services referred to in this Scheme for such times, during such periods, at such post offices and in such circumstances as it may in its discretion decide.

PART 2

GENERAL CONDITIONS FOR POSTING A LETTER

5. FIRST AND SECOND CLASS

5.1 A letter which complies with the applicable conditions of this Scheme except for a Special Delivery letter will be sent:

5.1.1 First Class if the relevant amount of postage set out in paragraph 8 of Schedule 1 to this Scheme has been paid, or the sender has entered into an agreement with the Post Office to pay that amount of postage;

5.1.2 Second Class if the relevant amount of postage set out in paragraph 8 of Schedule 1 to this Scheme has been paid, or the sender has entered into an agreement with the Post Office to pay that amount of postage; or

5.1.3 Second Class if insufficient postage for First Class, but more than sufficient postage for Second Class, has been paid.

5.2 The Post Office aims to deliver a letter sent First Class the next working day after posting and to deliver a letter sent Second Class within three working days after posting.

5.3 Valuables must not be sent by First or Second Class. Valuables must be sent using the Special Delivery service in accordance with the conditions set out in section 40 of this Scheme.

6. FORWARDING A LETTER

6.1 A recipient of a letter (except a Business Reply, Freepost, Special Delivery or Recorded letter) may forward it from its original address to another address in the United Kingdom, the Channel Islands or the Isle of Man by writing or printing the new address on the cover or envelope of the letter and re-posting the letter. A letter may only be forwarded in this way to the original addressee.

6.2 The Post Office will not charge additional postage for forwarding a letter that is re-posted on the day of delivery or on the following working day except in the circumstances set out below.

6.3 The Post Office will charge additional postage and any applicable fee for forwarding a letter if it has been opened before being re-posted, or the name of the original addressee is covered or obscured, or it is forwarded by a business or a person acting on behalf of a business. The Post Office may charge an additional fee, to be fixed by the Post Office from time to time, to forward a letter.

6.4 The Post Office may at its discretion deliver to the addressee or return to the sender a letter which has been forwarded and which bears a Special Delivery or Recorded label. In either case the Post Office will charge the addressee or sender additional postage and/or a fee to be fixed by the Post Office from time to time.

6.5 In any case where the Post Office considers that a letter has been forwarded to evade payment of postage it may treat it as an unpaid letter in accordance with section 17 of this Scheme.

6.6 The Post Office can be required under the Social Security Administration Act 1992 and the Social Security Administration (Northern Ireland) Act 1992 ("the Acts") not to deliver items of social security post which have been forwarded or redirected to a new address, but to return them to the sender. The Post Office is required under the Acts to provide information about the redirection of social security post to persons specified in the Acts.

7. A LETTER WHICH DOES NOT MEET POST OFFICE CONDITIONS

7.1 The Post Office may refuse to accept a letter that does not meet the conditions set out in this Scheme or may treat it as undeliverable in accordance with section 8 of this Scheme.

7.2 If a letter does not meet the conditions of the service paid for, the Post Office may convey it using a different service. In this circumstance, the postage, fees and conditions of the service by which the letter is conveyed will apply, but the Post Office's liability under this Scheme may not apply. This provision applies to a letter which has been posted or found on Post Office premises which appears to be intended for posting.

8. A LETTER WHICH WILL NOT BE DELIVERED

8.1 The Post Office may decide not to deliver a letter which it considers impracticable or unreasonable to deliver. Such a letter is referred to in this Scheme as undeliverable.

8.2 The Post Office may consider that it is impracticable or unreasonable to deliver a letter:

8.2.1 if the person to whom the letter is addressed is deceased or believed to be deceased;

8.2.2 if the address is unsafe;

8.2.3 if the address to which the letter is to be delivered is not permanently occupied;

8.2.4 if the letter does not bear a complete or legible address;

8.2.5 for any reason concerning the health and safety of staff; or

8.2.6 for any other reason.

8.3 Where a letter is undeliverable and:

8.3.1 the sender's name and address are legible on the cover or envelope, the Post Office may return the letter to the sender unopened;

8.3.2 the sender's name and address are not on the cover or envelope, or they are illegible, the letter may be opened. If the name and address of the sender are inside, and the letter does not consist solely of advertising material, newspapers or magazines, the letter may be returned to the sender;

8.3.3 the letter is opened and the name and address of the sender are not inside, and/or if the letter consists solely of advertising material, newspapers or magazines, the letter may be dealt with or disposed of at the discretion of the Post Office.

8.4 Section 8.3 does not apply to an electoral letter or a letter consisting of a registered newspaper. If such a letter is undeliverable, the Post Office may:

8.4.1 if the sender's name and address are legible on the cover or envelope, return it to the sender unopened; or

8.4.2 if the sender's name and address are not on the cover or envelope, or if they are illegible, the letter may be dealt with or disposed of at the discretion of the Post Office.

8.5 The Post Office will not charge any additional postage or fee for returning an undeliverable letter but the sender may have to pay any other fees that apply. If any applicable fee is not paid, the letter may be dealt with or disposed of at the discretion of the Post Office.

9. PACKING

9.1 A letter must be packaged and sealed such that, in the opinion of the Post Office, damage or harm will not be caused to other letters, equipment, or Post Office staff.

9.2 The address must not be obscured or made difficult to read in any way including by the manner in which the contents are enclosed in the letter.

9.3 A letter must not have on its envelope or cover:

9.3.1 anything which obscures the postage stamp or mark;

9.3.2 anything which is likely, in the Post Office's opinion, to make it difficult for the Post Office to apply a postmark to the cover or envelope;

9.3.3 anything which, in the Post Office's judgement, is likely to make the postmark illegible;

9.3.4 any counterfeit or fake postage stamp or mark;

9.3.5 any postage stamp or mark which has already been used to pay postage;

9.3.6 signs, words or marks, used without official permission, which could indicate that the letter was sent on Her Majesty's Service or was conveyed and delivered by the Post Office; or 9.3.7 any signs, words, marks or designs which are offensive, obscene or indecent.

9.4 A letter must not be made up in any way or have anything on its cover or envelope which, in the judgement of the Post Office, makes it difficult or embarrassing to deliver the letter.

9.5 A postage stamp or mark must not be attached to a letter using staples, sticky tape, or any other means that the Post Office does not approve.

9.6 A postage stamp or mark must be placed in the top right hand corner on the front of the cover or envelope of a letter unless the Post Office specifies otherwise.

10. PAYING POSTAGE AND FEES

10.1 Postage must be paid before a letter is posted, unless:

10.1.1 the letter is a Response Services letter in respect of which a licensee has paid or agreed to pay postage in accordance with section 38 of this Scheme;

10.1.2 the letter contains or consists of an address, electoral letter or petition to the Sovereign or either House of Parliament and is posted in accordance with the conditions set out in section 19 of this Scheme;

10.1.3 the letter contains articles for the blind and is posted in accordance with the conditions set out in section 21 of this Scheme;

10.1.4 the letter is re-posted to be forwarded in accordance with sections 6.1 and 6.2 of this Scheme; or 10.1.5 the sender has entered into a credit agreement or other arrangement for payment of postage with the Post Office.

10.2 All fees must be paid in advance unless the Post Office agrees otherwise.

10.3 The sender must demonstrate with respect to each letter posted that postage has been paid, or that the sender has entered into an arrangement with the Post Office for postage to be paid, on the letter. To demonstrate such payment or arrangement, a postage stamp or mark must be fixed, printed, impressed, embossed or otherwise marked on the cover or envelope of the letter, or the letter must be marked in any other way the Post Office may approve.

10.4 A postage stamp or mark may not be used to demonstrate payment of postage on a letter, or to demonstrate that the sender has entered into an arrangement with the Post Office for postage to be paid on a letter, if it is damaged or imperfect, or if it has been defaced, or if it has anything written or printed over it. An adhesive postage stamp which is perforated with initials by means of a punch may be used for those purposes, provided that the perforation holes are smaller than the holes dividing one stamp from another on a sheet of stamps.

10.5 A postage stamp or mark that has already been used to pay postage, or to demonstrate that the sender has entered into an arrangement with the Post Office to pay postage, cannot be re-used for those purposes.

11. POSTAGE RATES AND FEES

11.1 Postage rates for delivery of a letter within the United Kingdom are set out in Schedule I to this Scheme.

11.2 The Post Office may change postage rates from time to time. A change to postage rates and the date on which the changed rates will come into effect will be published in advance of the change in The London, Edinburgh and Belfast Gazettes.

11.3 The Post Office may charge fees (which may be in addition to any postage that may be payable) for use of the postal services set out in this Scheme. The Post Office may change the rate of any fees from time to time.

12. POSTCODES

12.1 Postcodes are allocated by the Post Office at its discretion throughout the United Kingdom in accordance with the operational needs of the Post Office's network of mail centres. The codes are routing codes and the Post Office may amend them at its discretion.

13.3.1 by handing to an authorised member of Post Office staff at a post office or mail centre;

13.3.3 in any other manner which the Post Office may approve.

14.2 The Post Office may apply a postmark to a cover or envelope in any manner which it considers appropriate for postal purposes.

14.3 The Post Office may also charge a fee (to be fixed by the Post Office from time to time) for cancelling postage stamps with a special postmark, or for applying a postmark which incorporates an advertisement.

15. PROHIBITIONS AND RESTRICTIONS

Such a letter is referred to in this Scheme as a Response Service letter.

38.2 Response Services include Business Reply, Freepost, Freepost Admail and Freepost Name services.

38.3 Businesses wishing to use a Response Service must have a Response Services Licence. "Licence" in this section means a Response Services Licence and "licensee" in this section means the holder of a Response Services Licence.
38.4 A licence authorises the licensee to use the Response Service specified in the licence. A licence may contain conditions as to payment by the licensee for use of the Response Service (which may include a requirement to pay a deposit or make advance payment) and other terms or conditions.

38.5 A licence will be granted for a period of one year.

38.6 Separate licences must be obtained for each Response Service required, except that the use of Business Reply and Freepost services may be authorised by the same licence. Separate licences are also required for barcoded and non-barcoded Response Services.

38.7 The licensee must specify an address (which must be in the United Kingdom) to which the Response Service letter is to be delivered. A licence may specify more than one address to which a letter may be sent. The address or addresses specified will be recorded in the licence. A licensee may apply to add other addresses to the licence from time to time.

38.8 A licence will specify for each address the terms in which the Response Service letter is to be addressed. A Response Service letter provided by the licensee for use, and all Response Service letters posted must be addressed in accordance with the terms specified in the licence.

38.9 The Freepost Name service enables persons to receive a letter at an address (a "Delivery Address") different from that which appears on the cover or envelope ("a Freepost Name Address"). A Freepost Name letter must be addressed in accordance with the terms specified in the Response Services licence.

38.10 Unless the licence provides otherwise, the licensee must provide the Post Office with a specimen of each pre-printed card, folder, letter card, envelope, cover or label to be used under the licence and must obtain the Post Office's approval to the layout, design, specifications and other details of that specimen. A Response Service letter must meet the specifications of the specimen approved by the Post Office

38.11 A licence fee for each address recorded in the licence must be paid annually. In the first year the fee must be paid before the licence is granted. After the first year the fee is payable on every anniversary of the date on which the licence was granted.

38.12 If an address is added to an existing licence, the fee payable will be a proportion of the annual fee calculated pro rata to the proportion of the licence period that remains unexpired at the time the address is added. The fee for adding an address is payable on the date the address is added, and the pro-rata charge is calculated on a weekly basis.

38.13 In addition to any licence fee, the licensee must pay postage on any Response Service letter delivered to the specified address together with a handling fee per letter.

38.14 The licensee may request that a Response Service letter is delivered by the first delivery on a particular day on which the Post Office usually makes more than one delivery. If this option is chosen the Post Office will charge an additional fee (a "first delivery option fee") for each letter.

38.15 No handling fee or first delivery option fee will be charged for delivery of a Response Service letter which has a bar-code approved by the Post Office affixed or printed onto the cover or envelope, in a position approved by the Post Office.

38.16 The Post Office may withdraw a licence, or impose a surcharge on the delivery of a Response Services letter, if it is found that the conditions of the licence and/or the conditions set out in this Scheme have been broken.

38.17 If a licence is withdrawn or cancelled, the Post Office may refuse to refund any part of the licence fee.

38.18 The Post Office has the right to disclose the full name and address of a licensee authorised to use a Response Service and the Delivery Address in the case of Freepost Name and Freepost Admail to anyone requesting the information and to withdraw the licence in the event of misuse.

39.3 The Post Office may, on payment of an additional fee, deliver bundles or bags directly to specified points at an address.

39.4 An agreement for the use of the Selectapost service must be for a minimum period of one year and may be renewed on a quarterly or annual basis.

39.5 If it is not clear from the address on a letter how it should be pre-sorted in accordance with the agreed specification, the letter will, together with other letters which cannot be pre-sorted, be delivered in a separate bundle or bag.

39.6 The Post Office may refuse to provide the Selectapost service if it is not possible for operational reasons to provide it at a particular address.

In either case the recipient will be charged a fee to be fixed by the Post Office from time to time. Any postage that may have been paid will be accepted as either part or full payment of the fee.

40.8 If a Special Delivery letter is returned to the sender in the circumstances set out in section 40.7 of this Scheme, and the sender pays any fee payable, the letter will be delivered, if deliverable, to the addressee.

40.9 If a Special Delivery letter is delivered to the addressee in the circumstances set out in section 40.7 of this Scheme, and the recipient fails to pay the fee payable, the letter may be dealt with or disposed of at the discretion of the Post Office.
