Animal Health

The Minister of Agriculture, Fisheries and Food, being designated (a) for the purpose of section 2(2) of the European Communities Act 1972 (b) in relation to the common agricultural policy of the European Community, in exercise of the powers conferred on him by the said section 2(2) and of all other powers enabling him in that behalf, make the following regulations:

S.I. 2000 No. 2976

These regulations may be cited as the Cattle (Identification of Older Animals) Regulations 2000; they extend to England only and shall come into force on 1st December 2000.

These regulations, which extend to England, implement the provisions of Council Regulation (EC) No. 1760/2000 in relation to older cattle. They require cattle born before 1st July 1996 (which is when the first cattle passports were issued) which are not already registered with the Ministry of Agriculture, Fisheries and Food on a voluntary basis to be registered before 29th January 2001 (regulation 5).

They require the location of all cattle with passports without movement cards not already registered with the Minister to be notified (regulation 6). They provide for the issue of movement cards to cattle born before 28th September 1998 (which is when the passports with movement cards were first issued) and require notification to the Minister when these animals are moved. They also provide for the use of electronic notification of movement as an alternative to notification using movement cards, and for a register of approved users of electronic notification (regulations 7 and 8).

They make provision for the notification of the death of cattle born before 1st July 1996 (regulation 9). They make provisions for powers of inspectors (regulation 10) and provide for an officer of the Minister to impose movement restrictions for cattle to which the Regulations relate (regulation 11). They make provisions for obstructions of inspectors (regulation 12) and for bodies corporate (regulation 13). Failure to comply with the regulations is an offence punishable as specified in regulation 14.

They are enforced by the Minister or the local authority (regulation 15). The database and the register of approved users of electronic mail are maintained by:- The British Cattle Movement Service, Curwen Road, Workington, Cumbria, CA14 2DD.

A regulatory appraisal has been prepared and placed in the library of each House of Parliament. Copies can be obtained from the Animal Identification and International Trade Division of the Ministry of Agriculture, Fisheries and Food. You can also obtain copies from any branch of Her Majesty's Stationery Office, price £2.00.

(2004/6)

The Minister of Agriculture, Fisheries and Food, in exercise of the powers conferred on him by sections 1, 10(1)(a) and (c) and (2), 11, 29(2)(b), 35(1), 76(3), and 83(2) of and Schedule 2 to the Animal Health Act 1981 (a) and all of the powers enabling him in that behalf, hereby makes the following order:

S.I. 2000 No. 2726

This order may be cited as the Specified Risk Material (Amendment) (England) Order 2000 and came into force on 25th October 2000. This order extends to England only.

This order (Which gives effect to article 3.1 of Commission Decision 2000/418/EC regulating the use of material presenting risks as regards transmissible spongiform encephalopathies (OJ. No. L158, 30.6.2000, p. 76) amends the Specified Risk Material Order 1997 (S.I. 1997/2964) in so far as it extends to England. S.I. 1997/2964 extends to the whole of Great Britain.

The order brings the definition of "specified risk material" into line with that contained in Commission Decision 2000/418/EC. With relation to article 6 of S.I. 1997/2964, it extends the categories of premises to which SRM must be sent if it is to be imported. It also requires the food and feeding stuffs containing SRM to be accompanied by a certificate where they are imported from a third world country.

A Regulatory Impact Assessment in relation to this order has been placed in the libraries of both Houses of Parliament and copies can be obtained from the BSE and IT Division of the Ministry of Agriculture, Fisheries and Food. Copies can also be obtained from any branch or Her Majesty's Stationery Office, price £1.75.
