

“THE INLAND POST AMENDMENT WARRANT, 1892,” DATED SEPTEMBER 19, 1892.¶

WE, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in pursuance of the Acts relating to Her Majesty's Post Office, and in exercise of all powers enabling us in this behalf, do, by this warrant, made on the representation of Her Majesty's Postmaster-General (testified by his signing the same), and under the hands of two of us, the said Commissioners, order, direct, and declare as follows:—

1. This warrant may be cited as “The Inland Post Amendment Warrant, 1892.”

¶ This warrant was published in the “London Gazette” October 7, 1892.

2. This warrant shall be read as one with the Inland Post Warrant, 1892* (herein-after referred to as the "principal warrant").

3. Where two or more part-express packets are delivered by the same special messenger at the same address, and the express fees payable thereon are not fully prepaid, the Postmaster-General may (without prejudice to the general power of remission conferred by the principal warrant) remit any sum payable in respect of the deficiency in such fees; provided that the following sums at least shall be paid by the addressee of such postal packet, that is to say, the full express fees on one of such packets, and the sum of one penny on each other of such packets.

4. In the principal warrant and in this warrant the term "re-direction" as applied to a postal packet includes "re-posting."

5. Clause 71 of the principal warrant shall be amended as follows, that is to say:—

The condition of re-direction marked (a) shall be and the same is hereby repealed, and the following condition shall be and the same is hereby substituted in lieu thereof, viz:—

(a.) Such letter shall be re-directed on the day of its delivery at the address from which it is re-directed, or on the day next following.

6. The provisions of the principal warrant with reference to the re-direction of any postal packet other than a letter shall apply to the re-direction of a letter at any time subsequent to the day next following that of the delivery of such letter at the address from which it is re-directed.

7. This warrant shall come into operation on the eighth day of October, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two.

Dated this nineteenth day of September, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two.

Rich. K. Causton,

W. A. McArthur,

Two of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury.

Arnold Morley,

Her Majesty's Postmaster-General.

* Printed at p. 684 above.