

INLAND POST WARRANT 1936

DATED JUNE 18, 1936.

We, the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, in exercise of all powers given to us by the Post Office Acts, 1908 to 1935, and of all other powers enabling us in this behalf, do by this Warrant, made on the representation of His Majesty's Postmaster General (testified by his signing the same), and under the hands of two of us, the said Commissioners, order, direct and declare as follows:—

Rates and Conditions of Postage and certain Services.

- 1.—(1) There shall be charged and paid upon the postal packets specified in the first column of the first Schedule hereto the rates of postage respectively specified in the second column thereof; the limits of size and weight of such postal packets shall not (except with the special permission of the Postmaster General) exceed those respectively specified in the third and fourth columns of the said Schedule; and the transmission thereof by post shall be subject to the conditions set out in the fifth column of the said Schedule and to the further conditions and provisions contained in the body of this Warrant.
- (2) There shall be charged and paid for the services specified in the first column of the second Schedule hereto the charges specified or referred to in the second column of the said Schedule and the said services shall be subject to the provisions contained or referred to in the third column of the said Schedule and to the further conditions and provisions contained in the body of this Warrant.
- (3) There shall be charged and paid for the conveyance of an express packet conveyed in the manner specified in the first column of the third Schedule hereto fees at the rates specified in the second and fourth columns of the said Schedule. The services shall be subject to the limits of size and weight of the postal packets conveyed referred to in the third column of the same Schedule, to the provisions specified in the fourth column thereof and to the further provisions contained in the body of this Warrant.

General Conditions.

- 2.—(I) There shall not be posted or conveyed or delivered by post any postal packet :—
 - (1) Consisting of or containing any indecent or obscene print, painting, photograph, cinematograph film, lithograph, engraving, book card or written communication, or any indecent or obscene article, whether similar to the above or not; or
 - (2) Having thereon, or on the cover thereof, any words, marks, or designs which are grossly offensive or of an indecent or obscene character; or
 - (3) Consisting of or containing :—
 - (a) any explosive substance;
 - (b) any dangerous substance;
 - (c) any filth;
 - (d) any noxious or deleterious substance;
 - (e) any sharp instrument not properly protected;
 - (f) except with the special permission of the Postmaster General, any living creature;

(g) any article or thing whatsoever which is likely to injure other postal packets in course of conveyance, or any receptacle in which the same are conveyed, or an officer of the Post Office or other person who may deal with such packet; or

- (4) Containing or bearing any fictitious postage stamp or any counterfeit impression of a stamping machine used under the direction or by the permission of the Postmaster General; or
- (5) Containing any imitation of a Bank note within the meaning of Section 38 of the Criminal Justice Act, 1925; or
- (6) Purporting to be prepaid with any stamp or impression of a stamping machine which has been previously used to prepay any other postal packet, or any other revenue duty or tax; or
- (7) Having thereon or on the cover thereof any words, letters, or marks (used without due authority) which signify or imply, or may reasonably lead the recipient thereof to believe, that the postal packet is sent on His Majesty's Service; or
- (8) Having thereon or on the cover thereof any words, marks, or designs of a character likely, in the opinion of the Postmaster General, to embarrass the officers of the Post Office in dealing with the packet in the post; or
- (9) Of such a form or so made up for transmission by post as to be likely, in the opinion of the Postmaster General, to embarrass the officers of the Post Office in dealing with the packet in the post; or
- (10) Having anything written, printed, or otherwise impressed upon or attached to any part of that side of the packet which bears the address at which the packet is to be delivered, which, either by tending to prevent the easy and quick reading of the address of the packet, or by inconvenient proximity to the stamp or stamps used in the payment of postage, or in any other way, is in itself, or in the manner in which it is written, printed, impressed, or attached, likely, in the opinion of the Postmaster General, to embarrass the officers of the Post Office in dealing with such postal packet.

(II) Where the Postmaster General has prescribed any particular colour, form or design for use in relation to a particular class of postal packets, it shall not be lawful to post or tender for conveyance by post any other postal packet of such colour, form or design.

- 3.—(1) There shall not be posted, or conveyed, or delivered by post any postal packet consisting of or containing two or more postal packets addressed to different persons who are at different addresses.
 - (2) If any such postal packet be posted, or tendered for conveyance by post, each postal packet contained therein may be forwarded to the addressee thereof charged with an additional rate of postage according to the prepaid rates fixed by this Warrant.
4. Every postal packet must be made up and secured in such manner as in the opinion of the Postmaster General is calculated to prevent injury to any other postal packet in course of conveyance, or to any receptacle in which the same is conveyed, or to an officer of the Post Office or other person who may deal with such packet, and where the Postmaster General has made any special rules in relation to the packing of any particular packet or article, such rules shall be observed.
5. Subject to the provisions of this Warrant, the postage and fees payable on every postal packet (except a packet consisting wholly of printed votes or proceedings of Parliament) must be prepaid.

6. Postage may be prepaid either—

Mode of payment

- (a) by adhesive postage stamps: or
- (b) by impressions of stamping machines working under the direction or by the permission of the Postmaster General; or
- (c) by the use of a stamped envelope, cover, postcard, or other postal form; or
- (d) by the use of an embossed or impressed stamp cut out of or otherwise detached from an envelope, cover, postcard, or other postal form; or
- (e) in such other manner as the Postmaster General may from time to time prescribe.

Provided that—

- (i) No stamp or impression of a stamping machine which is imperfect or mutilated or defaced in any way shall be used in payment or to denote payment of postage,
- (ii) no stamp indicating on the face thereof payment of a registration fee as well as postage shall be used in payment of postage on any unregistered postal packet, and
- (iii) packets bearing the impression of stamping machines and packets intended for impression by stamping machines shall be accepted only at such Post Offices as the Postmaster General thinks fit and within such hours, and under and subject to such rules, conditions, and restrictions as shall be prescribed.

- 7. Where postage is prepaid the stamp or impression on the envelope, cover, postcard or other form shall be in such position as the Postmaster General may deem convenient.
- 8. Nothing shall be written or printed or otherwise impressed across the postage stamp on any postal packet.

Special Conditions as to Postcards.

9. The following special conditions shall apply to postcards :—

- (1) A postcard shall be made of cardboard or paper stout enough not to hinder its manipulation and (except as the Postmaster General shall otherwise direct or authorize in regard to reply postcards) no writing or printing, other than the name and address of the addressee, shall appear on the right hand half of the face thereof.
- (2) Nothing whatever shall be in any manner attached to a postcard except—
 - (a) Postage stamps in payment of postage or of sums payable as late fee or for registration or for advice of delivery or for express delivery;
 - (b) Illustrations, photographs, stamps of any kind, cuttings, paper bearing the address or other written or printed matter. Provided that any such articles shall be of such nature as not to alter the character of the postcard, and shall be completely adherent. Provided also that stamps likely to be mistaken for stamps used for the payment of postage shall not be affixed to the address side of a postcard.
- (3) The two parts of a reply postcard may be folded together, but, save as aforesaid, a postcard or a reply postcard shall not be in any way folded, but shall be sent in one piece, open, through the post.

Special Conditions as to Printed Packets.

10. The following special conditions shall apply to printed packets:—

- (a) Every such packet shall be subject to examination in the post and if posted without a cover shall not be fastened or otherwise treated so as to prevent easy examination. A covered packet shall be unfastened or so adapted that the contents can be easily examined without breaking any seal or tearing any paper or separating any adhering surfaces or cutting any string.

- (b) No such packet shall contain or bear any communication in the nature of a letter not being matter coming within the definition of such packet or being otherwise expressly allowed by this Warrant.
- (c) No circular which is reproduced from or produced after the fashion or in imitation of a typewritten document shall be sent by post as a printed packet save under such conditions as the Postmaster General may from time to time direct.
- (d) No paper money shall be posted or conveyed or delivered by post in a printed packet, but this condition shall not apply to a stamped proxy paper or to a stamped and addressed card, wrapper or envelope forwarded by the sender of the packet in order that such card, wrapper or envelope may be returned through the post to such sender or some person designated by him.

Special Conditions as to Newspapers.

- 11.—(1) The provisions of the First Schedule of this Warrant relating to newspapers apply exclusively to newspapers registered in the manner provided by this Warrant.
 - (2) The proprietor of any newspaper may register it at the General Post Office for transmission by post, on payment to the Postmaster General of a fee of five shillings.
 - (3) The registration of a newspaper may be renewed from year to year, on payment to the Postmaster General of a fee of five shillings.
 - (4) Any newspaper not registered as aforesaid will, if posted, or tendered for transmission by post, be charged with postage as a printed packet, letter, or parcel of the same weight, whichever treatment involves the lowest charge.
- 12.—(1) Every newspaper or packet of newspapers shall be posted either in a cover open at both ends, and so that the same can be easily removed for the purpose of examination, or without a cover and tied with string which can be removed without cutting.
 - (2) Every newspaper when posted shall be so folded and covered (if posted in a cover) as to permit the title to be readily inspected.
 - (3) No article (not part of the newspaper) shall be posted in or in the same cover with the newspaper.
 - (4) No newspaper and no cover of a newspaper shall bear anything (not being part of the newspaper) except—
 - (1) the names, addresses and descriptions of the sender and addressee with index or reference numbers and letters;
 - (2) the words “With compliments,” “Specimen copy,” or “Voucher copy”;
 - (3) The title of the newspaper, and a reference to its registration for transmission by post; and
 - (4) a reference to any page of or place in the newspaper to which the attention of the addressee is directed.

Special Conditions as to Parcels.

- 13.—(1) All parcels intended to be transmitted by post shall (except as otherwise provided in this Warrant) be posted by being handed in at a post office in the manner hereinafter provided, on the days and within the hours during which such office shall be open to the public for the posting of parcels.
- (2) Every parcel must be packed in such a manner as in the opinion of the Postmaster General is calculated to preserve the contents from loss or damage in the post, and to prevent any tampering with its contents.

14. In respect of every parcel intended to be posted at a post office. the sender shall hand it to an officer on duty at the counter in such office. If such parcel does not exceed the limits of weight or measurement mentioned in the First Schedule hereto the postage thereon, according to the rates mentioned in that Schedule, shall be paid in accordance with the Regulation the marginal note of which is "Mode of payment", and no such parcel shall be forwarded by the post until the postage chargeable thereon shall have been properly paid; and if any such parcel shall be left at a post office without the postage chargeable thereon having been properly paid, such parcel shall be detained, and may be returned or given up to the sender thereof, or otherwise dealt with or disposed of in any manner authorised by this Warrant.
15. The Postmaster General may, if he thinks fit, from time to time authorise such officers as he may direct to receive parcels for the post otherwise than at a post office under such rules and conditions as may be prescribed.
- 16.—(1) Parcels intended to be transmitted by post between the Channel Islands, the Isle of Man, and other parts of the British Islands shall not be posted, forwarded, conveyed, or delivered except subject to such Regulations as are referred to in section 15 of the Post Office (Parcels) Act, 1882.
- (2) In respect of every parcel transmitted in either direction between the Channel Islands and any other part of the British Islands to which such Regulations are aforesaid apply, and upon the contents of which any duty is payable under the Customs Acts, there shall be charged and paid such further sum or fee as the Postmaster General shall direct not exceeding the following (that is to say) :—
- Where the Duty does not exceed ten shillings—sixpence.
Where the Duty exceeds ten shillings—one shilling.

Exceptional Unpaid Postal Packets.

17. The provisions of this Warrant with reference to prepayment of postage shall not apply to :—
- (1) postage forward parcels and business reply letters, and the postage charged on every such parcel and letter if not prepaid shall be the postage otherwise chargeable thereon together with an additional charge of one halfpenny;
- (2) Postage and fees payable on postal packets with respect to which the Postmaster General has entered into an arrangement with the senders thereof for the grant of credit facilities.

Special Conditions as to articles for the use of the Blind.

18. The following provisions shall apply to postal packets consisting of articles for the use of the blind :—
- (a) Every packet shall bear on the outside thereof the inscription "Articles for the blind", and the written or printed name and address of the sender.
- (b) Every packet shall be subject to examination in the post.
- (c) Every packet shall be posted either without a cover or in a cover which can be easily removed for the purposes of examination.
- (d) No packet shall contain any article not being an article for the use of the blind (except a label which may bear the name and address of the person to whom the packet is to be returned).
- (e) No packet shall contain any communication or inscription either in writing or printing (except the title, date of publication or manufacture, serial number, names and addresses of printer, publisher or manufacturer, price and table of contents of the book or paper, and any key to or instructions for the use of the special type or of any enclosed article).

- (f) Articles (xiii) to (xvi) (inclusive), mentioned in Regulation 62 (15) of this Warrant, may be sent or received only by persons or institutions who have entered into special arrangements to the satisfaction of the Postmaster General with regard to the transmission of such articles.

Special conditions as to sample packets.

- 19.—(1) The cover of every sample packet shall bear the word “sample” written or printed thereon.
- (2) Upon the outside of a sample packet or on the cover thereof shall be printed in ordinary type, or by means of a hand stamp, the name and address of the dealer by whom the samples are sent.
- (3) There shall not be enclosed in any sample packet any goods of any kind (however small the quantity) which under the provisions of this Warrant are chargeable with a rate of postage higher than the rate of postage applicable to sample packets.
- (4) The provisions of Regulation 10 {Special Conditions as to printed packets) shall apply to sample packets.

Irregular Posting.

- 20. If any postal packet is found, when in the post, not to comply with the provisions applicable to its transmission, it shall be forwarded charged with the lowest rate of postage which is applicable to the packet.

Provided that—

- (1) If forwarded as a letter or printed packet, the conditions in the fifth column of the First Schedule hereto (being the condition relating to letters and the similar condition, numbered (2) relating to printed packets) shall apply.
- (2) If forwarded as a parcel, it shall be charged with the appropriate rate of postage and an additional fee of one penny, less any postage prepaid.
- (3) The Postmaster General may, in any case, in his discretion, instead of forwarding the packet, return the same to the sender, or otherwise dispose thereof as he may think fit.

Re-direction.

- 21.—(1) Any postal packet may be re-directed from its original address, or any substituted address, to the same addressee at any other address.
- (2) Except where the Postmaster General otherwise directs any postal packet (other than a parcel) so re-directed as aforesaid shall be transmitted by post free of any charge or rate of postage in respect of such transmission, provided that such packet is re-directed on the day of its delivery at the address from which it is re-directed, or on the day next following.
- (3) In calculating the period within which a re-directed packet may be transmitted free of charge, under this Regulation (hereinafter referred to as “the period of free re-direction”), the following days shall not be computed, that is to say, a Sunda, Christmas Day, Good Friday, or Public Holiday.
- (4) Upon any postal packet (other than a parcel) re-directed at any time subsequent to the period of free re-direction, and upon any parcel whenever re-directed, there shall be charged in respect of each re-direction and (if not previously paid) paid by the addressee thereof in money upon the delivery of such packet or parcel the following additional rate of postage and fees (that is to say) :—

- (a) In the case of an unregistered postal packet or parcel an additional rate of postage equal in amount to the rate of postage originally chargeable thereon;
- (b) In the case of a registered postal packet or parcel the said additional rate of postage together with an additional registration fee according to the provisions of this warrant.

Provided that the Postmaster General may remit such additional rate of postage and (where applicable) registration fee in the case of a parcel (whether registered or unregistered) re-directed within the period of free re-direction, if the parcel is re-directed to an address served from the same Delivery Office or to an address within the same Town Delivery Area and may remit such additional registration fee as aforesaid, but not the additional rate of postage in the case of a registered parcel re-directed within the period of free-re-direction where the parcel is re-directed to an address which is not served as aforesaid.

- 22.—(1) In any case where an officer of the Post Office has reasonable cause to believe that a packet, purporting to be re-directed, has been posted as a re-directed packet with a view to evading the payment of any postage chargeable by law upon such packet, he may, before the delivery of such packet, require the addressee (who shall furnish proof of identity to the satisfaction of such officer) to sign a receipt for the same.
- (2) Any re-directed closed packet which appears to have been opened before being re-directed, and any packet which purports to be re-directed, but which appears to have been treated in a manner designed to evade the payment of any postage chargeable thereon by law, shall be dealt with and charged as an unpaid packet of the same description or otherwise dealt with as may be authorised by the Postmaster General.

Postes Restantes.

23. With regard to postal packets addressed to a post office to be called for by the addressee the following provisions shall apply (that is to say) ;—
- (a) The service is provided only for the occasional use and temporary convenience of addressees and the Postmaster General may make rules limiting and prescribing the number of postal packets which may be addressed to the same addressee at the same post office in any given period and the other conditions subject to which the service may be used and the post offices or class of post offices at which the service is available. In the event of any breach of such rules the packets may be dealt with or disposed of as the Postmaster General may in his discretion direct or authorise.
 - (b) The sender may add to the address of any such packet a request that the packet may, if not called for within the time specified in such request, be returned to the sender or some person designated by him.

In such case such packet shall, at the expiration of the time specified in the request (and subject to and in accordance with the rules in force for the time being as to the return of postal packets) be returned as specified in such request and shall, if necessary, be opened for that purpose by any officer of the Post Office duly authorised in that behalf.

Provided that if the time specified in such request exceeds the time during which the packet would (according to the rules of the Post Office in force for the time being) be retained at the post office to which it is addressed, the packet shall, notwithstanding any such request, be dealt with in accordance with such rules.

Return of Postal Packets.

- 24.—(1) With regard to any postal packet (other than a parcel) chargeable by law with a postage of three halfpence or more, which cannot be delivered through want of a true direction, or by reason that the addressee is dead or cannot be found, or has refused the same, or has refused or neglected to pay any charges thereon, or for any other sufficient reason, the following provisions shall apply (that is to say) :—

- (a) Where the full name and address of the sender appears legibly on the outside of such packet (as is hereby authorised notwithstanding anything in this Warrant contained) the packet shall be returned to the sender unopened, but subject to payment of any charges to which it has become liable.
 - (b) Where the name and address of the sender does not appear on the outside of such packet or are illegible the packet shall be opened by any officer of the post office duly authorised in that behalf, and if the name and address of the sender can be ascertained, the packet shall be returned to the sender, subject to payment of any charges to which it has become liable.
 - (c) Where the name and address of the sender cannot be ascertained, the packet may be dealt with or disposed of as the Postmaster General may in his discretion direct or authorise.
- (2) With regard to any postal packet chargeable by law with a postage not exceeding one penny, which cannot be delivered for any such reason as aforesaid, the following provisions shall apply (that is to say) :—
- (a) Where a request for the return of such postal packet to the sender thereof, or some person designated by him, appears on the outside of such packet (which request is hereby authorised notwithstanding anything in this Warrant contained) such packet shall be charged with an additional rate of postage equal in amount to the prepaid rate of postage originally chargeable upon the packet, and such rate of postage shall be payable by the sender of such packet, and the packet shall, upon payment of such rate of postage and any other charges to which it has become liable, be returned to the sender thereof or to the person so designated by him as aforesaid.
 - (b) Where no such request as aforesaid appears upon the packet, but where the packet has been insufficiently prepaid, or where from any other cause the Postmaster General deems it expedient so to do, he may tender such packet to the sender thereof charged with an additional rate of postage equal in amount to the prepaid rate of postage originally chargeable upon the packet, and the packet shall, upon payment of such rate of postage and any other charges to which it has become liable, be returned to the sender thereof.
 - (c) Where no such request as aforesaid appears upon the packet, or where upon the tender of the packet to the sender thereof he refuses or fails to pay the charges to which the packet has become liable by law, the packet may be dealt with or disposed of in such manner as the Postmaster General may in his discretion direct or authorise.

25. With regard to:—

- (a) parcels which are addressed to a post office to be called for, or to a place beyond the limits of the postal delivery of any town or district, or to a ship at any port in Great Britain, and which are not called for or delivered within such reasonable times as may be prescribed; and
- (b) parcels which cannot be delivered for want of a true direction. or by reason that the addressee is dead, or cannot be found. or has refused the same, or has refused or neglected to pay any charges thereon, or for any other sufficient reason, the following provisions shall apply, that is to say :—

- (1) The parcel shall, as the Postmaster General may from time to time direct, be retained at or forthwith forwarded to such place as the Postmaster General may from time to time appoint, and may, if necessary, be there opened and examined.

- (2) Where the name and address of the sender can be ascertained from the parcel, the parcel shall be returned to him free of charge.
- (3) Where the name and address of the sender cannot be ascertained from the parcel, the parcel shall be retained pending a claim from the sender or addressee. In default of any claim within a period of three calendar months, the parcel shall be disposed of in such manner as the Postmaster General may in his discretion direct or authorise.
- (4) Where, in the case of a parcel which cannot be delivered for want of a true direction, the sender corrects the address of the parcel, the parcel shall be forwarded to the corrected address subject to the following conditions:—
 - (a) Where the corrected address of the parcel is served from the same delivery office as the original address, and the parcel is not, at the time of such correction, lying at a returned letter office, no new charge shall be made with respect to the delivery of the parcel;
 - (b) Where the corrected address of the parcel is not served from the same delivery office as the original address, or the parcel at the time of such correction is lying at a returned letter office, the sender shall pay an additional rate of postage equal in amount to the rate of postage which shall have been originally chargeable on such parcel.
- (5) Notwithstanding anything herein contained, a parcel shall not be given up or returned by post to the sender except upon payment by him of any charge to which the parcel has become liable under the provisions of any such Regulations as are referred to in sections 14 and 15 of the Post Office (Parcels) Act, 1882.
- (6) The Postmaster General may require proof to his satisfaction that an applicant for a parcel is entitled to receive the same.
- (7) Where an applicant fails to prove to the satisfaction of the Postmaster General that he is entitled to receive the parcel, or refuses or fails to pay any charges to which the parcel has become liable, the parcel may be dealt with or disposed of in such manner as the Postmaster General may in his discretion direct or authorise.
- (8) Any parcel in the possession of the Postmaster General which becomes offensive or injurious to any officer of the post office, or other person, or to other parcels, or which is likely from its character or condition to become offensive or injurious as aforesaid, or to become valueless before it can be delivered or otherwise dealt with in accordance with the provisions of this Warrant, may forthwith be dealt with or disposed of in such manner as the Postmaster General may in his discretion direct or authorise, notwithstanding that the provisions of this Warrant as to the return of such parcel have not been, or have only partially been, complied with.
- (9) Where a parcel cannot be delivered by reason that the addressee has refused or neglected to pay the Customs or other charges thereon or for any other reason and—
 - (a) the name and address of a substituted addressee has been furnished by the sender or addressee and the parcel is forwarded to the substituted address; or
 - (b) the parcel is subsequently retransmitted to the addressee thereof at the request of the sender or addressee;there shall be charged and paid by the addressee the additional postage chargeable for transmission from the original to the substituted address, or in respect of such retransmission, as the case may be.

- 26. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Warrant, where the Postmaster General is satisfied that the addressee of postal packets is dead he may in his discretion :—
- (a) deliver or re-direct such postal packets on the written application of any one or more of the Executors named in the Will of the addressee or of a person appearing to the Postmaster General he be entitled to take out Letters of Administration to the Estate of the addressee; or in Scotland a majority or quorum of the Executors or (if there is no Will) of the person whose appointment is being sought as Executor Dative; or
 - (b) deliver or re-direct such postal packets on the written application of any person appearing to the Postmaster General to be conducting the affairs of the deceased addressee of the postal packets; or
 - (c) retain such postal packets for such period as he may think fit and on production of Probate of the Will or Letters of Administration to the Estate of the addressee together with the written application of one or more of the executors or administrators, or in Scotland on production of confirmation together with the written application of majority or quorum of the Executors or the Executor Dative, deliver or re-direct the packets in accordance with such request.

Express Delivery.

- 27. An express packet must bear the word “Express” or such other words or such lines or marks as shall be prescribed.
- 28. An express packet must be posted by being handed to an officer of the Post Office in accordance with such conditions as shall be prescribed, or, in the case of a postal packet not conveyed by special messenger during the first part of its course, posted in the manner in which other postal packets are posted under this Warrant.
- 29. The sender or addressee of an express packet may require the messenger who delivers the packet to convey an express packet by way of reply or further service. There shall be charged and paid in respect of the last mentioned packet the charges specified in the third Schedule to this Warrant.
- 30. All mileage fees, postage, and other sums payable in respect of express packets shall be prepaid, except where the Postmaster General otherwise directs. Provided that the Postmaster General may forward a packet as an express packet although the full sums chargeable thereon are not prepaid, and if the addressee refuses to pay the deficiency it shall be paid by the sender. Provided further that in no case shall the Postmaster General be bound to deliver any express packet not fully prepaid unless the addressee pays all sums due and payable thereon.
- 31. The provisions of this Warrant relating to the compulsory registration of postal packets containing coin, or jewellery, shall not apply to a postal packet conveyed as an express packet throughout its whole course in the post.
- 32. Subject to the provisions of this Warrant as to express delivery, all express packets shall be forwarded, conveyed, and delivered in all respects subject to the provisions of the Acts and Regulations in force for the time being in relation to inland postal packets, so far as the same are applicable.

Registration.

- 33. Subject to the provisions of this Warrant, any postal packet may be registered.
- 34. The following rules shall apply to the registration of postal packets:—
- (1) The packet must be posted by—

- (a) being handed for registration to an officer on duty at a post office; or
 - (b) being handed for registration to some officer of the Post Office authorised to receive packets for registration though not on duty at a post office.
- (2) Subject to the provisions of this Warrant all sums chargeable on the registration of the packet, and all postage chargeable thereon, must be prepaid.
- (3) Subject to the provisions of this Warrant, on the posting of the packet a certificate of posting, bearing thereon an acknowledgment that the registration fee has been paid, must be obtained.

Provided that in the case of the re-direction of a registered postal packet paragraphs (2) and (3) of this Regulation shall not apply, and, if the person tendering the packet for registration does not pre-pay the postage and sums chargeable on the packet, a Certificate of Posting stating that the said postage and sums have not been paid must be obtained.

- 35. On the delivery of a registered postal packet the person to whom the packet is addressed or his servant or agent shall give a written receipt for the same in the prescribed form. Where such person or his servant or agent refuses to give such a receipt the packet may be withheld and dealt with or disposed of in such manner as the Postmaster General may in his discretion direct or authorise.
- 36. For the registration of a postal packet as described in paragraph 1 of the first column of Part I of the Fourth Schedule hereto there shall be charged and paid the registration fee (hereinafter called “the ordinary registration fee”) and (where applicable) the late fee respectively specified in the second and third columns of the said part of the said Schedule.
- 37. Any postal packet :—
- (a) on which, or on the envelope or cover of which, the word “registered”, or any other word, phrase, or mark conveying the impression that the packet is registered or intended to be registered, is written or impressed, or which contains coin or jewellery; or
 - (b) which or the envelope or cover of which bears any word, phrase, name, label, design, mark or other indication implying in the opinion of the Postmaster General that such postal packet contains any article having an intrinsic or marketable value:
- shall be registered, and if found in the post unregistered may be detained for the purpose of registration, at any Post Office through which it shall pass.
- 38. If any postal packet which is subject to compulsory registration shall be posted without registration, such packet shall be charged with the registration fee specified in the second column (opposite paragraph 22 of the first column) of Part I of the Fourth Schedule hereto.

39.— (1) With regard to—

- (i) any letter or parcel found open in the post or which cannot be delivered for want of a true direction, or by reason that the addressee is dead, or cannot be found, or has refused the same, or has refused or neglected to pay any charges thereon, or for any other sufficient reason, and
- (ii) any printed packet, sample packet, newspaper, or packet of newspapers, the following provisions shall apply, that is to say :—

Where any such postal packet is found to contain—

- (a) a postal order not crossed to a banker in which the name of the payee has not been inserted in accordance with the direction on such order;
- (b) any cheque or dividend warrant which is not crossed to a banker or made payable to order;
- (c) any bearer security (including a share warrant, scrip or subscription certificate, bond or relative coupon);

- (d) any bank note or currency note;
 - (e) any postage stamps;
 - (f) any other article (except coin or jewellery) of a value (in each case) of ten shillings or over, such postal packet shall be registered and shall be forwarded to the addressee or tendered to the sender thereof (as the case may be) charged with the ordinary registration fee.
- (2) Where upon tender of such postal packet to the addressee or sender thereof he refuses or fails to pay the charges to which the same has become liable by law, such packet may be dealt with or disposed of in such manner as the Postmaster General may, in his discretion, direct or authorise.

Compensation for Loss and Damage.

- 40.—(1) Subject to the provisions of this Warrant, if any article of pecuniary value enclosed in, or forming part of, a registered postal packet be lost or damaged whilst in the custody of the Postmaster General, the Postmaster General may pay to any person or persons who may, in the opinion of the Postmaster General, establish a reasonable claim to compensation (having regard to the nature of the article, the care with which it was packed, and other circumstances) such sum as he may think just: provided that if the registration fee paid in respect of the registered postal packet so lost or damaged as aforesaid is the ordinary registration fee of threepence or one of the higher registration fees specified in Column 1 of Part II of the Fourth Schedule hereto (any of which higher registration fees may be paid by the sender) the sum paid by way of compensation shall not exceed the sum specified in Column 2 of the said Part of the said Schedule opposite the amount of the registration fee paid.
- (2) The compensation payable in respect of a registered parcel shall be in substitution for, and not in addition to, any compensation which would have been payable under this Warrant in case the parcel had not been registered.
- 41. If any article of pecuniary value enclosed in, or forming part of, an unregistered parcel be lost or damaged whilst in the custody of the Postmaster General, the Postmaster General may pay to any person who may, in the opinion of the Postmaster General, establish a reasonable claim to compensation (having regard to the nature of the article, the care with which it was packed, and other circumstances) such sum, not exceeding three pounds, in respect of such parcel as he may think just.
- 42. If any article of pecuniary value enclosed in, or forming any part of, an unregistered express packet, which is conveyed by special messenger throughout its whole course in the post, be lost or damaged whilst in the custody of the Postmaster General, the Postmaster General may pay to any person who may, in the opinion of the Postmaster General, establish a reasonable claim to compensation (having regard to the nature of the article, the care with which it was packed, and other circumstances) such sum, not exceeding three pounds, in respect of such packet as he may think just.
- 43. If any postal packet which is subject to compulsory registration shall be posted without registration, no claim to compensation will be considered by the Postmaster General to arise in respect of the loss or damage (if any) of any article enclosed in or forming part of such packet.

Cash on Delivery packets.

- 44. No Trade Charge exceeding £40 shall be collected under this Warrant.
- 45. Cash on Delivery packets (other than parcels) shall be registered.

46. There shall be charged and paid on each Cash on Delivery packet, in addition to the postage and other charges payable on such packet, a fee according to the scale of fees set out in the Fifth Schedule hereto.
47. The sender of a Cash on Delivery packet shall fill up, as far as required, the prescribed form (in this Warrant referred to as “the Trade Charge form”), and shall mark the packet in such manner and with such particulars as shall be prescribed.
48. The fee payable on a Cash on Delivery packet shall be paid by the sender and shall be indicated on the Trade Charge form.
- 49.—(1) A Cash on Delivery packet shall not be given up to the addressee thereof, or opened at his request, until the Trade Charge and any postage or other charges due thereon have been paid.
 - (2) Where the Trade Charge on a Cash on Delivery packet exceeds £10 or the Trade Charge and the postage or other charges due in respect of such packet exceed that sum, the Postmaster General may give notice to the addressee of the arrival thereof and before delivery is effected require the addressee to pay the amount due within such period as shall be prescribed and at such Office as shall be specified in the advice sent to the addressee by the Postmaster General.

Trade Charge Money Orders.

- 50.—(1) The Postmaster General shall upon receiving from the addressee the Trade Charge remit the same to the sender of the packet, or a person named by him, by means of a Trade Charge Money Order forming part of the Trade Charge form or by such other means as shall be prescribed.
 - (2) Except where payment is made to a Banker, the receipt for the amount of the Trade Charge which forms part of the Trade Charge form shall be signed by the sender of the packet, or by the person named by him to receive the amount or by a person duly authorised in that behalf by the sender or the person named by him. .
 - (3) When a Trade Charge Money Order is made payable to a Company, Corporation, or Society, a receipt given by means of a stamp of the name of the Company, Corporation, or Society, or in the name of the officer or servant applying for payment, shall be a good receipt to the Postmaster General for the amount of the Trade Charge.
- 51.—(1) A Trade Charge Money Order shall be crossed and marked “not negotiable”, and, except where the Postmaster General shall otherwise direct, shall be paid to a Banker.
 - (2) The Order may be crossed either:—
 - (a) generally by the addition on its face of two parallel transverse lines or
 - (b) specially by the addition on its face of the name of a Banker between the two parallel transverse lines, in which case the Order shall be deemed to be crossed to and shall be paid to that Banker.
 - (3) A Banker to whom a Trade Charge Money Order is crossed may again cross it to another Banker as his Agent for collection.
52. The following rules shall apply to the payment of a Trade Charge Money Order to a Banker:—
 - (1) A Trade Charge Money Order may be presented for payment by a Banker at the Chief Money Order Office in London or at the office of the Post Office Accountant in Edinburgh or at any other Office at which payment of the said Orders presented by a Banker may from time to time be authorised by the Postmaster General.

- (2) Where a Trade Charge Money Order is presented by a Banker the name of the Banker, by or on behalf of whom such Order is presented, written or stamped by way of crossing or otherwise, upon the face of the order, shall be a good receipt to the Postmaster General for the amount of the Trade Charge.
- (3) Where a Trade Charge Money Order has been presented for payment by a Banker and has been paid to a Banker and it is afterwards discovered that such Order should not have been paid or allowed to such Banker, the amount so paid or allowed may be deducted from any moneys which may thereafter become payable to such Banker for or on account or in respect of Trade Charge Money Orders and no objection shall be taken by any Banker to such deduction.

53. The payment of the amount of a Trade Charge Money Order to whomsoever made, shall discharge the Postmaster General and his officers from all liability whatsoever in respect of that Order, notwithstanding any forgery, fraud, mistake, or loss which may have been committed or may have occurred in reference to such Order, or to the procuring thereof, or to the payment thereof, and notwithstanding any disregard of this Warrant, and notwithstanding any thing whatsoever.
54. After the expiration of three calendar months from the last day of the calendar month in which any Trade Charge Money Order is issued such Order shall be absolutely void and of no effect, and the Postmaster General shall be under no liability to pay such Order. Provided that in such case the Postmaster General may, if he thinks fit (subject to payment of such fee as may be prescribed) pay the amount of such Order, although such Order has become void.

Miscellaneous.

55. Where any postal packet, from its size, weight, character, or condition is, in the opinion of the Postmaster General, unfit for transmission by the route by which such packet would ordinarily travel in the post, such packet may be detained and forwarded by such other route as the Postmaster General may think fit.
56. Where the despatch or delivery from a post office of letters would be delayed by the despatch or delivery therefrom at the same time of printed packets, sample packets or postcards, such printed packets, sample packets or postcards or any of them, may be detained in the post office until any subsequent despatch or delivery.
57. The Postmaster General may give effect to the provisions of this Warrant as to the loss or damage of articles enclosed in or forming part of a registered postal packet, an express packet or a parcel, out of such aids or supplies as may be from time to time provided and appropriated by Parliament for that purpose, but nothing contained in or done under or in pursuance of this Warrant shall render him liable, either personally or in his official capacity, to any action or other legal proceeding in respect of, or in consequence of, any such loss or damage; and the decision of the Postmaster General on all questions arising between him and any person claiming payment in respect of the loss or damage of any article enclosed in or forming part of a registered postal packet, an express packet or a parcel, shall be final and conclusive.
58. The Postmaster General may, in any case in which he may consider it just or reasonable so to do, remit any postage or any sum made payable under this Warrant.
59. Any postal packet which is posted in contravention of the provisions of this Warrant, whether as regards the nature of its contents, the mode of posting, or packing, or otherwise, may, subject to and consistently with the special provisions of this Warrant, be either returned or given up to the sender thereof, or dealt with or disposed of in such other manner as may be authorised by the Postmaster General.

- 60.—(1) Subject to such Rules as may be prescribed, the Postmaster General may, upon application being made in the prescribed manner by the addressee of any postal packets :—
- (a) re-direct the postal packets from their original address to the same addressee at any other address;
 - (b) retain the postal packets and deliver them to the addressee or his agent upon his calling therefor at the office of delivery;
 - (c) temporarily withhold the postal packets from delivery to the addressee thereof.
- (2) In such cases as the Postmaster General may direct, there shall be charged and paid by the addressee in respect of the services provided for in this Regulation such fees (periodical, or otherwise), as may be prescribed.
- 61. Subject to such rules, and upon payment of such fees (periodical or otherwise), as may be prescribed, the Postmaster General may :—
- (1) Collect postal packets (other than parcels) from private posting boxes situate on private premises.
 - (2) Provide at prescribed post offices private boxes or private bags into which postal packets may be placed, to be called for by the addressee of such postal packets or his agent, or, in the case of private bags, to be delivered to the addressee by an officer of the Post Office.
