

THE FOREIGN PARCELS (CUSTOMS) WARRANT, 1895,
DATED DECEMBER 2, 1895.

1895. No. 577.

Whereas the warrant dated the 8th June, 1885,* relating to the application of the Customs enactments to foreign parcels as defined by the Post Office (Parcels) Act, 1882,† was not intended to apply to parcels containing goods delivered without payment of duty from a Customs warehouse; and it is desirable to make provision for the delivery of parcels of tea from Customs warehouses for transmission by parcel post to places out of the United Kingdom:

We, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in exercise of the powers conferred upon us by the 14th section of the Post Office (Parcels) Act, 1882,† and of all other powers enabling us in this behalf, do, by this warrant, made on the recommendation of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Customs and of Her Majesty's Postmaster General (testified by their respectively signing the same), order, direct, and declare as follows:—

(1.) The above-mentioned warrant of the 8th June, 1885, shall not apply to parcels of tea delivered from Customs warehouses, herein-after referred to as "bonded parcels."

(2.) Every bonded parcel delivered from a Customs warehouse to the sender shall be accompanied by an authority for such delivery, signed by an officer of Customs.

(3.) The officer of the post office accepting a bonded parcel duly accompanied by the Customs authority shall give to the sender a certificate of the posting of the parcel.

(4.) The certificate of posting thus given shall, for the purposes of section 104 of the Customs Consolidation Act, 1876,‡ relating to the exportation of bonded goods, be deemed to be evidence of an act equivalent to shipment under that section.

(5.) The delivery of bonded parcels from a Customs warehouse shall be subject to such bond, and to such special conditions as the Commissioners of Customs may from time to time prescribe.

(6.) If any claim shall be made on the Postmaster-General for compensation in respect of the loss of or damage to any bonded parcel, that claim shall, in the absence of proof to the contrary, be deemed to be conclusive evidence that such parcel has not been duly exported, and that its contents have gone into consumption in the United Kingdom; and the duty shall be paid accordingly.

(7.) This warrant shall come into operation on the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-six.
