- (5.) The Postmaster-General may require proof to his satisfaction that an applicant for a parcel is entitled to receive the same.

- (10.) Where no application is made for a parcel within the period specified in any such notice as aforesaid, or an applicant fails to prove to the satisfaction of the Postmaster-General that he is entitled to receive the parcel, or refuses or fails to pay the charges to which the parcel has become liable under this Warrant, the parcel may be dealt with or disposed of in such manner as the Postmaster-General may, in his discretion, direct or authorise.

Express Delivery Fee on Outgoing Parcels.

11. Upon every outgoing parcel addressed to any country or place abroad in which delivery of parcels is effected by special messenger, marked with the words "express delivery" or with such other words as may indicate the desire of the sender that the parcel may be delivered by special messenger (which words are herein-after referred to as an "express marking") there shall be charged and prepaid the fee of fivepence.

Delivery of Incoming Parcel by Special Messenger.

12.—(1.) Any incoming parcel marked with an express marking shall in the United Kingdom, be conveyed and delivered by special messenger, subject to the regulations and conditions for the time being in force with respect to the conveyance of inland parcels in the United Kingdom.

(2.) No express fee shall be payable by the addressee of such parcel unless and in so far as the sum prepaid thereon for express delivery of such parcel is less than the express fee payable on an inland parcel.

Re-direction.

13.—(1.) Any parcel may be re-directed from its original address, or any substituted address, within the British Islands, to any country or place with which a Parcel Post from the British Islands is established, and in every case of such re-direction there shall be charged on such parcel in respect of such re-direction a new and distinct rate of postage according to the rates for the time being payable in respect of the transmission of a like parcel from the British Islands to the country or place to which it may be re-directed.

(2.) Any parcel may be re-directed from its original address, or any substituted address within the British Islands, to any other address within the British Islands, and in every case of such re-direction there shall be charged on such parcel in respect of such re-direction, and (if not previously paid) paid by the addressee thereof upon the delivery of such parcel such rate of postage as would in like case be charged upon the parcel were it an inland parcel.

(3.) No parcel re-directed to the British Inlands from a place out of the British Islands shall be delivered to the addressee except upon payment of all charges for re-direction or otherwise to which the parcel has become liable by the law of the British Islands, or of any foreign country or British possession.

Compensation for Loss or Damage.

14. If any article of pecuniary value, enclosed in or forming part of a parcel, be lost or damaged whilst in the course of conveyance by the post, under the provisions of this Warrant, the Postmaster-General may pay to any person, or to the postal administration of any British possession or foreign country, if, in the opinion of the Postmaster-General, such person or administration establishes a reasonable claim to compensation (having regard to the nature of the article, the care with which it was packed, and other circumstances) such sum as he may think just ;

Provided that—

- (1.) In the case of an uninsured parcel the sum paid by way of compensation shall not exceed one pound.
- (2.) In the case of an outgoing insured parcel where in addition to the postage payable in respect of such parcel a compensation fee of the amount specified in the first column of the Third Schedule hereto (and no more) is paid in respect of such parcel, the sum paid by way of compensation shall not exceed the sum specified in the second column of the said schedule.

- (3.) In the case of an incoming insured parcel the sum paid by way of compensation shall be such a sum not exceeding fifty pounds, as having regard to the amount of the compensation fee in addition to the postage paid in respect of such parcel, may be from time to time fixed by agreement between the Postmaster-General and the British possession or foreign country from which the parcel is transmitted.

15.—(1.) A parcel containing coin or any article of jewellery or any article not for the time being transmissible in an uninsured parcel to or from the country, to which the parcel is addressed or in which it was posted, shall not be conveyed by post unless the same is registered or insured.

(2.) The following regulations shall apply to any such parcel if posted without registration or insurance :—

(i.) If such parcel be received in the British Islands—

(a.) Such parcel shall be registered, and may be detained for that purpose at any post office.

(b.) Such parcel shall be charged with a registration fee of fourpence, in addition to all other postage payable thereon.

(ii.) If such parcel be posted in the British Islands it shall be returned to the sender.

(iii.) No compensation shall be payable in respect of the loss or damage of such parcel or the contents thereof.

16. The Postmaster-General may give effect to the provisions of this Warrant as to the loss or damage of articles enclosed in or forming part of parcels, out of such aids or supplies as may be from time to time provided and appropriated by Parliament for that purpose, but nothing contained in, or done under, or in pursuance of, this Warrant, shall render him liable, either personally or in his official capacity, to any action or other legal proceeding in respect of, or in consequence of, any such loss or damage, whether such loss or damage be occasioned by or arise from any act or neglect of any officer of the Post Office or any other person. And the decision of the Postmaster-General on all questions arising between him and any person claiming payment in respect of the loss or damage of any article enclosed in or forming part of a parcel shall be final and conclusive.

Prohibitions.

17. There shall not be posted or conveyed or delivered by post any parcel containing any article or thing not authorised by the customs or other laws or regulations of the British Islands, or of the place to which the parcel is addressed, or of any country through which it may pass.

Non-compliance with Regulations.

18. In any case not in this Warrant expressly provided for, where any parcel shall be posted or tendered for conveyance or transmitted by post, which in any respect infringes or fails to comply with the regulations herein-before contained or any of them, such parcel may be dealt with or disposed of in such manner as the Postmaster-General may, in his discretion, direct or authorise.

*Customs Regulations.

19. Parcels intended to be transmitted by post under the provisions of this Warrant shall not be posted, forwarded, conveyed, or delivered, except subject to such regulations as are referred to in section 14 of the Post Office (Parcels) Act, 1882.

Application of Inland Parcel Regulations.

20. Except where otherwise provided in this Warrant, the regulations for the time being applicable to inland parcels shall (so far as the same are applicable) apply to parcels transmissible by post under the provisions of this Warrant.

Remission of Postage.

21. The Postmaster-General may in any case in which he may consider it just or reasonable so to do, remit any postage or any sum made payable under this Warrant.

Commencement of Warrant.

22. This Warrant shall come into operation on the 1st day of October, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-seven.

Date.
