3. Except by permission of the Postmaster General, there shall not be forwarded, conveyed, or delivered by post any parcel the length of which shall exceed three feet six inches or the combined length and girth of which shall exceed six feet (the girth to be measured round the thickest part) or the weight of which shall exceed twenty-two pounds or such lesser length, girth or weight as shall be prescribed with reference to parcels for particular countries or places.

Mode of posting

5. Subject to the provisions of this Warrant, the following provisions shall apply to the posting of an outgoing parcel, that is to say:—
  - (a) The parcel shall be posted by being handed in at a post office designated by the Postmaster General for that purpose.
  - (b) The parcel must bear the name and full address of the addressee, and must be packed in such manner and form and in accordance with such directions as may from time to time be prescribed in that behalf. - (2) This Regulation shall not apply to a parcel addressed to a country or place with the Postal Administration of which the Postmaster General has not for the time being an arrangement for the collection from the senders of Customs and other charges.

Customs regulations

7. Parcels intended to be transmitted by post under the provisions of this Warrant shall not be posted, forwarded, conveyed, or delivered, except subject to such regulations as are referred to in Section 14 of the Post Office (Parcels) Act, 1882(a), and, in the case of parcels intended to be transmitted by post from a British Postal Agency, subject to the Customs regulations of the country or place in which such Agency is situated.

Charge for fulfilment of Customs formalities

- 8.—(1) In respect of every incoming parcel to which such regulations as are referred to in Section 14 of the Post Office (Parcels) Act, 1882, apply, or (in the case of a parcel received at a British Postal Agency) to which Customs regulations of the country or place in which such Agency is situated apply, and upon the contents of which any liability to duty attaches, there shall be charged and paid such further sum or fee as the Postmaster General shall direct not exceeding the following (that is to say):—

Treatment of parcels posted in letter boxes

9. Any outgoing packet transmissible by Parcel Post, which from any words or marks thereon, or other external evidence, appears to have been intended for transmission as a parcel, and has not been tendered for transmission as a parcel but has been posted in a post office letter box or otherwise than as provided for the posting of parcels, may, in the discretion of the Postmaster General, either be detained and returned or given up to the sender, or if the said packet is fully pre-paid with the letter rate of postage or the rate of postage applicable to a printed packet (other than a magazine for Canada), a commercial packet, a sample packet, a small packet, a magazine for Canada and a packet of literature for the blind and otherwise conforms to the regulations as to a letter or any such packet, the same may be forwarded as a letter or as a printed packet, commercial packet, sample packet, small packet, a magazine for Canada, or a packet of literature for the blind (as the case may be).

Delivery at post offices

Charges exceeding £10 on incoming parcels

11. Where the charges due in respect of an incoming parcel or incoming parcels amount to more than ten pounds, the Postmaster General may give notice to the addressee of the arrival thereof and before delivery is effected require the addressee to pay the amount due within such period and at such office as shall be specified in the notice given to the addressee as aforesaid.

- (2) Where under any such arrangement as above mentioned an outgoing parcel is received from a place outside the British Islands (or, in the case of a parcel posted at a British Postal Agency, is received at that Agency from any place, whether outside or within the British Islands) for return to the sender, there shall be charged upon such parcel and paid by the sender additional postage according to the rate chargeable under any such arrangement, and the parcel shall not be given up to the sender except upon payment of such additional postage and of all charges of any kind to which the parcel may have become liable under the provisions of this Warrant, or otherwise by the law of Great Britain or of any other part of the British Islands or of any other country or place.
- (3) Where under any such arrangement as above mentioned a parcel is not returned to the sender, or the sender or the addressee refuses or fails to pay the charges to which the parcel has become liable under this Warrant or otherwise, the parcel may be dealt with or disposed of in such manner as the Postmaster General may, in his discretion, direct or authorise.
- (4) (a) Where an incoming parcel cannot be delivered as originally addressed and under any such arrangement as above mentioned the name and address of a substituted addressee has been furnished by the sender, and the parcel is forwarded to the substituted address, or
- (b) Where an incoming parcel, which cannot be delivered within such reasonable time as the Postmaster General may from time to time prescribe, is subsequently re-transmitted to the addressee thereof at the request of the sender or of the addressee,
- there shall be charged and paid by the addressee additional postage at the Inland rate chargeable for transmission from the original to the substituted address or in respect of such re-transmission, as the case may be. Where the parcel exceeds fifteen pounds in weight there shall be charged for such transmission or re-transmission a sum not exceeding two shillings and sixpence.

Treatment of irregular parcels

- 13.—(1) Except as otherwise provided in this Warrant parcels which are posted or received otherwise than in conformity with the provisions of this Warrant may be either detained and returned or given up to the senders thereof or dealt with or disposed of in such other manner as may be authorised by the Postmaster General.

- (2) If a packet found in an incoming parcel contravenes the provisions of Regulation 2 (5) (Prohibitions) of this Warrant, the Postmaster General may, if he thinks fit, either deliver the parcel to the addressee thereof or withdraw the packet so found and deliver it to the addressee thereof but subject in either case to the payment of a charge not exceeding the postage which would have been payable in respect of the packet had it been transmitted as a separate postal packet from the country or place in which it was posted.

Express delivery fee on outgoing parcels

14. Where the Postmaster General has made an arrangement with the Postal Administration of any country or place abroad for the delivery by special messenger in that country or place of any outgoing parcel addressed thereto (being a parcel not exceeding such weight as may be prescribed) which is marked with the word "express" or with such other word or words as may indicate the desire of the sender that the parcel may be delivered by special messenger (which word or words are hereinafter referred to as an "express marking") there shall be charged and prepaid on every outgoing parcel bearing such express marking such fee not exceeding eightpence as the Postmaster General shall direct.

Delivery of incoming parcels by special messenger

- 15.—(1) Any incoming parcel, not exceeding twenty two pounds in weight, marked with an express marking shall, in the British Islands, be delivered by special messenger, subject to the regulations and conditions (other than the limit of weight) for the time being in force with respect to the conveyance of inland parcels in the British Islands.
- (2) No express fee shall be payable by the addressee of such parcel unless and except in so far as the sum prepaid thereon for express delivery of such parcel is less than the express fee payable on an inland parcel.

Re-direction

- 16.—(1) Any parcel may be re-directed from its original address or any substituted address within the British Islands or from a British Postal Agency, to the same addressee at any other address in any country or place with which a Parcel Post from the British Islands or from such Agency is established, provided that the parcel conforms with the regulations applicable to parcels sent by post to the country or place to which it is re-directed. In every case of such re-direction there shall be charged on such parcel in respect of such re-direction additional postage according to the rates for the time being payable in respect of the transmission of a like parcel to the country or place to which it may be re-directed.
- (2) Any parcel may be re-directed from its original address or any substituted address within the British Islands to the same addressee at any other address within the British Islands, and in every case of such re-direction there shall be charged on such parcel in respect of such re-direction, and (if not previously paid) paid by the addressee thereof upon the delivery of such parcel such rate of postage as would be chargeable on a parcel of similar weight originally posted in the British Islands and addressed to some place in the British Islands. Where the parcel exceeds fifteen pounds in weight there shall be charged on such parcel in respect of such re-direction a sum not exceeding two shillings and sixpence.

Provided that the Postmaster General may remit the postage payable under this paragraph in respect of the re-direction when the re-directed parcel is handed in on the day of its delivery at the address from which it is re-directed or on the day next following (a Sunday, Christmas Day, Good Friday and Public Holiday not being counted for this purpose) if the parcel is re-directed to an address served from the delivery office at which the parcel is handed in or to an address in the same town delivery area.

- (3) Any parcel not exceeding eleven pounds in weight may be re-directed from its original address or any substituted address within the British Islands to the same addressee at any address in the Republic of Ireland, and in every case of such re-direction there shall be charged on such parcel in respect of such re-direction such rate of postage as would be chargeable on a parcel of similar weight originally posted in the British Islands and addressed to some place in the Republic of Ireland.

  - (d) a new insurance charge, comprising a sum equal to the registration fee and one of the compensation fees referred to in sub-paragraphs (a) and (b) of paragraph (3) of Regulation 18 of this Warrant is paid by the person re-directing the parcel unless evidence is produced to the satisfaction of the Postmaster General that the addressee will pay the charge on delivery.
- (5) Any insured parcel which is re-directed in accordance with paragraph (2) or paragraph (3) of this Regulation will be transmitted by post provided:
  - (a) the parcel does not appear to have been opened; and

- (6) No parcel re-directed from a place out of the British Islands to a place within the British Islands or to a British Postal Agency and no parcel re-directed from a place within the British Islands to a British Postal Agency shall be delivered to the addressee except upon payment of all charges of any kind to which the parcel has become liable by the law of Great Britain or any other part of the British Islands, or of any other country or place.

Delivery of parcels in bond at substituted addresses

- 17.—(1) Subject to such Rules as may be prescribed, the Postmaster General may, upon application being made in the prescribed manner by the addressee of any incoming parcel which is in bond, re-address the parcel or permit the parcel to be re-addressed to any person in the British Islands, the Republic of Ireland or elsewhere and on release by the Commissioners of Customs deliver the parcel or despatch it for delivery accordingly.
- (2) There shall be charged and paid in respect of the services provided for in this Regulation:—

If a parcel or any article of pecuniary value, enclosed in or forming part of a parcel, be lost or damaged whilst in the course of conveyance by post under the provisions of this Warrant, the Postmaster General may pay to any person, or to the Postal Administration of any country, if, in the opinion of the Postmaster General, such person or Administration establishes a reasonable claim to compensation (having regard to the nature of the article, the care with which it was packed, and other circumstances) such sum as he may think just;

Provided that—

- (1) In the case of an uninsured parcel, other than a parcel posted at a British Postal Agency in the Persian Gulf for transmission to an address served by another such Agency in the Persian Gulf, the sum paid by way of compensation shall not exceed the sum appropriate thereto according to the scale set out in Part I of the Second Schedule hereto.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Warrant, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

This Warrant consolidates with amendments the Regulations relating to postal parcels sent to or received from places abroad.

The rates of postage chargeable on outgoing parcels are related closely to the actual cost of handling and conveyance, and vary considerably for the various parts of the world. The maximum charge for surface conveyance stated in Regulation 4 (1) is unchanged, but the maximum rates for Air Mail parcels specified in Regulation 4 (2) are double the previous amounts. This change has been rendered necessary because the previous maximum rates are not expected to be sufficient to cover the cost of conveyance by air to the more distant parts of the world to which Air Mail parcels services are, for the first time, about to be established.

The revised scale of maximum amounts of compensation for the loss of or damage to uninsured parcels set out in Part I of the Second Schedule represents, for heavy weight parcels, the current equivalents of the maximum gold franc amounts prescribed in the bi-lateral Parcel Post Agreements with foreign postal administrations. The scale which it supersedes was £1 for a parcel weighing 11 lb. or less and £1 12s. for a parcel weighing more than 11 lb. The opportunity has been taken to introduce maximum amounts of compensation for light weight parcels (up to 3 lb., and from 3 lb. to 7 lb.) to accord with the general practice of other postal administrations with which bi-lateral Agreements are in force. The conditions as to the payment of compensation for the loss of or damage to uninsured parcels are set out in Regulation 20.

The provisions as to insurance are set out in paragraphs (4) and (5) of Regulation 16, which deals with the redirection of incoming insured parcels, and in Regulation 18, which states the conditions applicable to the insurance of outgoing parcels.

Regulation 1 (2) applies the Warrant to parcels posted by members of the forces of a British Commonwealth country serving abroad.

New provisions are inserted relating to parcels exchanged between one British Postal Agency and another in the Persian Gulf. (Regulation 19, Provisos (2) and (5) of Regulation 20, Regulation 23 and Part III of 2nd Schedule.)
