

THE FOREIGN AND COLONIAL POST AMENDMENT (No. 14)
WARRANT, 1906. DATED OCTOBER 19, 1906.

1906. No. 793.

We, the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, in exercise of all powers given to us by the Post Office Acts, or any of them, and of all other powers enabling us in this behalf, do, by this Warrant, made on the representation of His Majesty's Postmaster-General (testified by his signing the same), order, direct, and declare as follows:—

1. This Warrant shall be read as one with the Foreign and Colonial Post Warrant, 1898* (hereinafter called "the Principal Warrant") and all Warrants amending the same.

2.—(1.) Clause 15 of the Principal Warrant (so far as unrepealed) is hereby repealed, save in the case of postcards originating in or addressed to a country or place in which a Regulation similar to that Clause is still in force.

Warrant to be read with existing Warrants.

Repeal of Clause 15 of Principal Warrant and substitution of new clause.

(2.) The following clause shall be substituted in lieu of Clause 15 of the Principal Warrant so repealed as aforesaid, namely:—

15. (1.) No writing except the address and any postal directions recognised by the Postal Union Convention, and no printing except that of any of the matters aforesaid, shall appear on the right hand half of the face of a postcard. Address only to be written on right hand half of face of card.

(2.) It shall not be necessary for postcards of private manufacture (not being reply postcards) to bear on the face thereof the word "postcard" or its equivalent in another language, and the definition of the expression "postcard" in sub-section (2) of Clause 35 of the Principal Warrant shall be read accordingly. Private postcards.

(3.) A postcard shall not be less than four inches in length or two inches and three-quarters of an inch in width, and shall be made of cardboard or paper stout enough not to hinder its manipulation. Make and minimum size of card.

(4.) Nothing whatever shall be in any manner attached to a postcard except— Nothing to be attached to card.

(a) Postage stamps in payment of postage or of sums payable for registration or for acknowledgment of delivery or for express delivery;

(b) Engravings and photographs on very thin paper completely adherent either to the back of the postcard or to the left hand half of the face of the postcard; and

(c) A gummed label not exceeding two inches in length or three-quarters of an inch in breadth bearing the address at which the postcard is to be delivered, and a similar label bearing the name and address of the sender of the postcard.

(5.) For the purposes of a reply, the reply half of a reply postcard shall be severed from the other half, but subject to this provision, no postcard shall be cut or folded or otherwise altered.

(6.) If any postcard is sent by post otherwise than in conformity with the provisions of this clause, it shall be dealt with and charged as a letter. Disposal of cards not in conformity with Warrant.

3. The Foreign and Colonial Post Amendment (No. 11) Warrant, 1905,* is hereby repealed. Repeal.

4. This Warrant may be cited as "The Foreign and Colonial Post Amendment (No. 14) Warrant, 1906." Short title.
