Foreign Office, December 26, 1871.

EARL GRANVILLE, Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, has received from the French Chargé d'Affaires at this Court, the following announcement relative to Ships' Bills of Health :—

IN consequence of the improvement ascertained to have taken place in the sanitary condition of Places on the Coast of the Baltic and North Seas, the French Government has decided that an application may be made to the Sanitary Authority in favour of Packets, making regularly at least two voyages in the course of the week, between England and France, which it is desired should be exempted from obligation to produce a bill of health for each voyage. This application will be examined by the proper department, and, if there is sufficient reason, the Minister of Commerce will grant the exemption in question. The authorization will be given in writing, and for a definite time, but it will be subject to revocation.

TREASURY WARRANT.

WE, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in exercise of all powers given to us by the Post Office Acts, or any of them, and of all other powers enabling us in this behalf, do by this Warrant, under the hands of two of us the said Commissioners, order and direct as follows :—

1. The letters described or referred to in the Schedule hereto may be transmitted by the post from the countries and places set forth in the first column to the countries and places set forth in the second column of such schedule, by the routes and means of conveyance described and set forth in the third column of such schedule, at the rates of postage respectively specified in the fourth column of such schedule, and subject to the regulations and conditions hereinafter contained.

2. The postage chargeable under this Warrant, upon any letter posted in the United Kingdom, shall be prepaid.

3. If the postage chargeable under this Warrant upon any letter posted in the United Kingdom shall not be prepaid, the letter shall be detained and opened and returned or given up to sender thereof.

4. This Warrant shall not prejudice or affect any exemptions or privileges granted by the Post Office Acts, nor the privilege enjoyed by seamen, soldiers, and others employed in Her Majesty's Service, of sending and receiving letters at a reduced rate of postage.

5. The rates of postage fixed by this Warrant on letters transmitted by the post as herein-mentioned shall be in lieu of those now chargeable thereon by virtue of a certain Treasury Warrant dated the 16th day of February, 1871, which Treasury Warrant is hereby repealed.

6. This Warrant shall come into operation on the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two.
