- (3.) On every book packet, and also on every pattern or sample packet posted in the United Kingdom addressed to Brazil and transmitted either direct by British Packet-boat, or via France and by French Packet-boat, the rate of postage shall be the sum of one penny for every two ounces in weight, or for any fractional part of two ounces over and above the first or any additional two ounces in weight thereof.
- (4.) The additional sum to be charged for the registration of any postal packet, hereinbefore mentioned, posted in the United Kingdom and addressed to Brazil shall be the sum of four pence, provided that all rates of postage chargeable on such packet, together with the said additional sum for the registration thereof, be fully prepaid.
2. All such postal packets as are hereinbefore mentioned, shall be posted, forwarded, conveyed, and delivered under, and subject to, the several regulations, conditions, prohibitions, and restrictions applicable thereto respectively, and hereunder written, that is to say :

General Regulations and Conditions.

- (1.) There shall not be conveyed or delivered for conveyance by post any postal packet which shall contain either gold or silver money, any jewel or precious article, or any other article liable to Customs' duties, and any such packet shall, if posted, be detained and returned, or given up to the sender thereof.
- (2.) There shall not be conveyed or delivered for conveyance by post any newspaper, packet of newspapers, or book packet exceeding two pounds in weight, nor any pattern, or sample packet, exceeding one half of a pound in weight, and any such newspaper or packet shall, if posted, be detained and returned, or given up to the sender thereof.
- (3.) There shall not be conveyed or delivered for conveyance by post (unless by the special permission in any case, or class of cases, of the Postmaster-General) any postal packet, the dimensions of which shall exceed two feet in length, or one foot in breadth or depth, and any such packet shall, if posted, be detained and returned, or given up to the sender thereof.
- (4.) There shall not be conveyed or delivered for conveyance by post any postal packet which shall contain anything which might, by pressure or otherwise, be rendered injurious, either to the officers of the Post Office or to the contents of the mail bags, nor any book packet or pattern or sample packet which shall not be securely packed and guarded in such manner as to furnish complete protection against injury to the officers of the Post Office and to the contents of the mail bags, and any such packet shall, if posted, be detained and returned, or given up to the sender thereof.

- (5.) There shall not be conveyed or delivered for conveyance by post any indecent or obscene print, painting, photograph, lithograph, engraving, book, or card, or any other indecent or obscene article, or any letter, newspaper, supplement, publication, packet, or card having thereon, or on the cover thereof, any words, marks or designs of an indecent, obscene, libellous, or grossly offensive character, and if anything shall be posted which shall primâ facie fall within the aforesaid prohibition, it shall be stopped and submitted at the General Post Office, in London, to the inspection of an officer duly authorised in that behalf by the Postmaster-General.
- (6.) The Postmaster-General may, in any case in which he shall consider it just or reasonable so to do, remit any postage made payable by any regulation contained in this Warrant.
- (7.) In this Warrant the expression "United Kingdom" means the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, the Channel Islands, and the Isle of Man.

As to Newspapers.

- (8.) The regulations and conditions made and prescribed by a Warrant of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, dated the twenty-seventh day of December, one thousand eight hundred and seventy, shall in all respects apply to newspapers conveyed or delivered for conveyance by post, as mentioned and described in this Warrant.
- (9.) If any newspaper or package of newspapers be posted without the postage chargeable thereon being fully prepaid, it shall be detained and returned, or given up to the sender thereof.

As to Book Packets.

- (10.) In this Warrant the expression "book packet" shall mean and comprise not only books, but also all packets consisting of articles of the following kinds not being trade patterns or samples of merchandize, that is to say :—
- a. Paper or any other substance in ordinary use for writing or printing, whether such paper or other substance be plain or with anything (except a letter or communication in the nature of a letter) written, printed, or otherwise impressed thereon, and whether the same be in the form of books or in any other form.
- b. Printed, engraved, or lithographed circulars, notwithstanding that such circulars may be letters or communications in the nature of a letter.
- c. Photographs and other things of a like kind, when not on glass or in frames, containing glass or any brittle substance of a like kind.
- d. Anything usually attached, or appurtenant to any of the before-mentioned articles, in the way of binding, mounting, or otherwise, and anything convenient for their safe transmission by post, which shall be contained in the same packet.
- (11.) Every book packet shall be posted either without a cover or in an open cover, and so that the same can be easily removed for the purpose of examination.
- (12.) No book packet shall be posted which shall contain anything sealed or otherwise closed against inspection, or which shall contain any letter, or any communication in the nature of a letter, written on any part of the packet or the cover thereof (although the same may be open to inspection), or which shall contain any separate letter or communication in the nature of a letter, not being a circular within the meaning of these regulations; but any circular may bear the written signature and address of the sender, with his trade or profession and the date.

- (13.) If any book packet comprising printed papers, such as circulars, notices, and documents of a like kind be posted without the postage chargeable thereon being fully prepaid, it shall be detained and returned, or given up to the sender thereof.
- (14.) If any book packet comprising printed papers, such as circulars, notices, and documents of a like kind be sent by post otherwise than in conformity with the regulations hereinbefore contained, numbered respectively (10), (11), and (12), it shall be detained and returned, or given up to the sender thereof.
- (15.) If any book packet (except any packet comprising printed papers, such as circulars, notices, and documents of a like kind) be sent by post otherwise than in conformity with the regulations hereinbefore contained, numbered respectively (10), (11), and (12), it shall be dealt with and charged in all respects as an unpaid letter.

As to Pattern and Sample Packets.

- (16.) In this Warrant the expression "pattern or sample packet" shall comprise such articles only as consist wholly of trade patterns or samples of merchandize.
- (17.) No patterns or samples shall be of any intrinsic value, or consist of articles or things of a saleable nature, or having a value of their own apart from their mere use as patterns or samples.
- (18.) Patterns or samples shall, when practicable, be posted in covers open at both ends, and so that the same may be easily removed for the purpose of examination. Nevertheless, samples of seeds, drugs, and such other articles as cannot be posted in open covers, may be posted enclosed in boxes, or in bags of linen or other material fastened in such a manner that they may be readily opened so as to enable the officers of the Post Office readily to satisfy themselves as to the nature of the contents.
- (19.) There shall be no writing upon any pattern or sample packet, or on the cover thereof, except the address of the person for whom it is intended, the name and the trade or profession of the sender thereof, a manufacturer's or trade mark or number, and the price of the articles, patterns or samples of which are contained therein, nor shall there be any writing or other thing enclosed in any such packet, except the name and the trade or profession of the sender thereof, a manufacturer's or trade mark or number, and the price of the articles, patterns, or samples of which are contained therein, and any such permitted writing in any such packet may be on labels attached to the patterns or samples.
- (20.) If there shall be posted any packet containing a pattern or sample of any intrinsic value, or of a saleable nature, or having a value of its own apart from its mere use as a pattern or sample, such packet shall be detained and returned, or given up to the sender thereof.

- (21.) If any pattern or sample packet be sent by post otherwise than in conformity with the regulations hereinbefore contained, numbered respectively (18) and (19), it shall be dealt with and charged in all respects as an unpaid letter.

3. This Warrant shall come into operation on the first day of December, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five.

Dated this twenty-ninth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five.
