

was prohibited by the said Act, such extension or variation to be made by Order, under the hand of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State:

And whereas the Justices of the county of Anglesey, in Quarter Sessions assembled, have applied to me to the effect that an Order should be made directing that the time during which the killing, wounding, and taking of wild fowl, as defined by the said Act, is prohibited shall be varied in the county of Anglesey, so as to be from the 1st day of March to the 24th day of July in each year.

Now, therefore, I, the Right Honourable Richard Assheton Cross, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, in pursuance of the said Act, and on such application as aforesaid, hereby order as follows:—

The time during which the killing, wounding, and taking of wild fowl, as defined by the said Act, is prohibited, shall be varied in the county of Anglesey, so as to be from the 1st day of March to the 24th day of July, in each year.

Given under my hand at Whitehall, this 6th day of May, 1878.

TREASURY WARRANT.

WE, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in exercise of all powers enabling us in this behalf, do by this Warrant made on the representation of Her Majesty's Postmaster-General (testified by his signing the same) and under the hands of two of us, the said Commissioners, order, direct, and declare as follows:—

1. The rates of postage to be henceforth charged by or under the authority of the Postmaster-General (in lieu of those now payable) in respect of letters conveyed or delivered for conveyance by post, as mentioned and described in the Schedule hereunder written, shall be the rates of postage which are fixed and specified by and in such Schedule.

2. So much of the Treasury Warrant dated the 6th day of December, 1869, as relates to the rates of postage upon letters transmitted by post between the several countries and places respectively mentioned in the said Schedule hereunder written, is hereby repealed as from the date on which this Warrant comes into operation.

3. This Warrant shall come into operation on the first day of July, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight.

THE SCHEDULE above referred to.
