

THE FOREIGN AND COLONIAL PARCEL POST WARRANT, 1921.
DATED JUNE 30, 1921.

1921. No. 1513.

We, the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, in exercise of all powers given to us by the Post Office Acts 1908 to 1920, (a) and of all other powers enabling us in this behalf, do, by this Warrant, made on the representation of His Majesty's Postmaster General (testified by his signing the same) and under the hands of two of us, the said Commissioners, order, direct, and declare as follows:—

- Definitions. 1. In this Warrant—
- “ Parcel.” (1) The expression “ parcel ” means a postal packet which is posted at a British Post Office as a parcel in accordance with the provisions of this Warrant or any Warrant amending the same, or is received at a British Post Office from abroad by Parcel Post.
- British Post Office. (2) The expression “ British Post Office ” means and includes any Post Office in the British Islands and any Agency of the Postmaster General outside the British Islands.
- “ Outgoing.” (3) The expression “ outgoing ” applied to a parcel means posted at a British Post Office.
- “ Incoming.” (4) The expression “ incoming ” applied to a parcel means received at a British Post Office through the post.
- “ British Islands.” (5) The expression “ British Islands ” means the United Kingdom, the Channel Islands, and the Isle of Man.
- “ British possession.” (6) The expression “ British possession ” means any part of His Majesty's dominions exclusive of the British Islands.
- “ Bullion.” (7) The expression “ bullion ” means uncoined and unmanufactured gold or silver.
- “ Coin.” (8) The expression “ coin ” means coin of all kinds whether or not current in the British Islands or elsewhere, except such as is used or designed for purposes of ornament.
- “ Jewellery.” (9) The expression “ jewellery ” means—
- (a) gold or silver in a manufactured state; that is to say, a state in which value is added to the raw material by skilled workmanship; and in this definition are included any coins used or designed for purposes of ornament;
- (b) diamonds and precious stones;
- (c) watches entirely or mainly composed of gold or silver; and

(a) 8 E. 7. c. 48; 5-6 G. 5. c. 82; 10-1 G. 5. c. 40.

(d) any article of a like nature which, apart from workmanship, has an intrinsic or marketable value.

(10) The expression "insured parcel" means a parcel in respect of which a compensation fee is paid. "Insured Parcel."

2. Parcels may, subject to the provisions of this Warrant, be transmitted by post :—

(a) between the British Islands and any place out of the British Islands with reference to which an arrangement has been made with respect to the conveyance of parcels by post, and

(b) between the British Islands and such Agencies of the Postmaster General outside the British Islands as he may direct and between such Agencies and any place with reference to which such an arrangement as above mentioned has been made.

Places between which parcels may be transmitted.

3.—(1) There shall be charged and paid on outgoing parcels, such rates of postage as from time to time shall be directed by the Postmaster General. Provided that such rates shall in no case exceed twelve shillings on a parcel not exceeding eleven pounds in weight except in the case of parcels addressed to Northern Rhodesia, to Southern Rhodesia, to Japan (via Canada), and to the Belgian Congo (via Cape Town), the rates of postage on which shall not exceed twenty shillings.

Rates of postage on parcels.

(2) The Postmaster General shall publish from time to time in the London Gazette the several rates of postage payable under this Warrant, and in any proceeding by or against the Postmaster General relating to the postage payable in respect of parcels transmitted under this Warrant, the production of a copy of the Gazette containing the rate in question shall be conclusive evidence that such rate is the rate for the time being payable as aforesaid.

4. Except by permission of the Postmaster General, there shall not be forwarded, conveyed, or delivered by post any parcel the dimensions and weight of which shall exceed such dimensions and weight as shall be prescribed by the Postmaster General with reference to such parcel.

Maximum dimensions and weight.

5. Subject to the provisions of this Warrant, the following provisions shall apply to the posting of outgoing parcels, that is to say :—

Mode of posting.

(a) The parcel must bear the name and full address of the addressee, and must be packed in such manner and form and in accordance with such directions as the Postmaster General may from time to time prescribe in that behalf. The parcel must also be accompanied by or have affixed to it one or more declarations of such kind, and stating the nature and value of the contents of the parcel in such manner and form and with such other particulars as the Commissioners of Customs and the Postmaster General may prescribe.

(b) The sender may also be required to fill up a despatch note in such form as the Postmaster General may prescribe.

Certificate of delivery of outgoing insured parcel.

6.—(1) Subject to such rules as the Postmaster General may from time to time prescribe, the Postmaster General may, at the request of the sender of an outgoing insured parcel, and on prepayment by such sender of such sum or fee not exceeding threepence as the Postmaster General shall direct, obtain and forward to such sender an acknowledgment or certificate of the delivery of such parcel at the place to which the said parcel is addressed.

(2.) This Regulation shall not apply to a parcel addressed to a country or place the Postal Administration of which does not for the time being undertake to obtain or give an acknowledgment or certificate of the delivery of such parcel.

Payment of foreign customs and other charges by sender.

7.—(1) Where the sender of an outgoing parcel desires that such parcel may be delivered to the addressee free of all Foreign Customs Duties and other charges thereon, the following rules shall apply to such parcel :—

(a) The parcel shall be posted at a Post Office prescribed by the Postmaster General for that purpose.

(b) There shall be charged and paid on such parcel, in addition to all other postage payable thereon, the amount of the Foreign Customs Duties and of all other charges payable on the delivery of such parcel, and such further sum or fee not exceeding one shilling as the Postmaster General shall direct.

(c) The sender shall sign an undertaking (in such form as the Postmaster General may from time to time prescribe) to pay on demand the amount of such Foreign Customs Duties and other charges as aforesaid.

(d) The sender shall also, if so required, pay, by way of deposit at the time of posting the parcel, such sum as the Postmaster General may prescribe in respect of such Foreign Customs Duties and other charges.

(2) This Regulation shall not apply to a parcel addressed to a country or place with the Postal Administration of which the Postmaster General has not for the time being an arrangement for the collection from the senders of Customs and other charges.

Charge for fulfilment of customs formalities.

8. In respect of every incoming parcel to which such Regulations as are referred to in Section 14 of the Post Office (Parcels) Act, 1882, (a) apply, and upon the contents of which any duty is payable under the Customs Acts, there shall be charged and paid such further sum or fee not exceeding sixpence as the Postmaster General shall direct.

(a) 45-6 V. c. 74.

9. Any outgoing packet transmissible by Parcel Post which appears to have been intended for transmission as a parcel but which has not been tendered for transmission as a parcel, but has been posted in a post office letter box, or otherwise than according to the manner herein-before prescribed for the posting of parcels, may, in the discretion of the Postmaster General, either be detained and returned or given up to the sender, or if the said packet is fully pre-paid with the letter or open packet rate of postage, and otherwise conforms to the regulations as to the letter or open packet post, the same may be forwarded as a letter or open packet (as the case may be).

Treatment of parcels posted in letter boxes.

10.—(1) Parcels which for any reason are undeliverable shall be dealt with in accordance with arrangements from time to time made between the Postmaster General and the Postal Administration concerned.

Return and disposal of undelivered parcels.

(2) Where under any such arrangement as above mentioned an outgoing parcel is returned to the sender, there shall be charged upon such parcel and paid by the sender additional postage according to the rate chargeable under any such arrangement, and the parcel shall not be given up to the sender except upon payment of such additional postage and of all charges of any kind to which the parcel may have become liable under the provisions of this Warrant, or otherwise by the law of this country, or of any foreign country or British Possession.

(3) Where under any such arrangement as above mentioned a parcel is not returned to the sender, or the sender or the addressee refuses or fails to pay the charges to which the parcel has become liable under this Warrant or otherwise, the parcel may be dealt with or disposed of in such manner as the Postmaster General may, in his discretion, direct or authorise.

(4) Where an incoming parcel cannot be delivered as originally addressed and under any such arrangement as above mentioned the name and address of a substituted addressee has been furnished by the sender, the parcel shall be forwarded to the substituted address subject to the following conditions :—

- (a) Where the substituted address is served from the same Post Office as the original address no new charge shall be made for the delivery of the parcel.
- (b) In any other case there shall be charged and paid by the addressee additional postage at the rate chargeable for transmission from the original to the substituted address.

11. Upon every outgoing parcel addressed to any country or place abroad in which delivery of parcels is effected by special messenger, marked with the words "express delivery" or with such other words as may indicate the desire of the sender that the parcel may be delivered by special messenger (which words as herein-after referred to as an "express marking"), there shall be charged and pre-paid such fee not exceeding sixpence as the Postmaster General shall direct.

Express delivery fee on outgoing parcels.

Delivery of
parcel by
messenger.

12.—(1) Any incoming parcel marked with an express marking shall, in the British Islands, be conveyed and delivered by special messenger, subject to the regulations and conditions for the time being in force with respect to the conveyance of inland parcels in the British Islands.

(2) No express fee shall be payable by the addressee of such parcel unless and except so far as the sum pre-paid thereon for express delivery of such parcel is less than the express fee payable on an inland parcel.

Re-direction.

13.—(1) Any parcel may be re-directed from its original address or any substituted address within the British Islands, or from one of the Agencies of the Postmaster General herein-before mentioned, to any country or place with which a Parcel Post from the British Islands or from such Agency is established, and in every case of such re-direction there shall be charged on such parcel in respect of such re-direction additional postage according to the rates for the time being payable in respect of the transmission of a like parcel to the country or place to which it may be re-directed.

(2) Any parcel may be re-directed from its original address or any substituted address within the British Islands to any other address within the British Islands, and in every case of such re-direction there shall be charged on such parcel in respect of such re-direction, and (if not previously paid) paid by the addressee thereof upon the delivery of such parcel such rate of postage as would in like case be charged upon the parcel were it an inland parcel.

(3) No parcel re-directed from a place out of the British Islands to a place within the British Islands or to one of the said Agencies shall be delivered to the addressee except upon payment of all charges of any kind to which the parcel has become liable by the law of the British Islands, or of any foreign country or British possession.

Compensa-
loss or damage.

14. If any article of pecuniary value, enclosed in or forming part of a parcel, be lost or damaged whilst in the course of conveyance by the post under the provisions of this Warrant, the Postmaster General may pay to any person, or to the postal administration of any British possession or foreign country, if, in the opinion of the Postmaster General, such person or administration establishes a reasonable claim to compensation (having regard to the nature of the article, the care with which it was packed, and other circumstances) such sum as he may think just;

Provided that—

(1) In the case of an uninsured parcel the sum paid by way of compensation shall not exceed one pound.

(2) In the case of an outgoing insured parcel where in addition to the postage payable in respect of such parcel—

(a) a sum equal to the registration fee prescribed in relation to outgoing postal packets under the Regulations for the time being applicable to the Foreign and Colonial Post (except parcels) and

(b) a compensation fee of an amount specified in the first column of the Second Schedule hereto (and no more) are paid in respect of such parcel, the sum paid by way of compensation shall not exceed the sum specified in the second column of the said Schedule opposite the said fee.

(3) In the case of an incoming insured parcel the sum paid by way of compensation shall be such a sum, not exceeding four hundred pounds, as, having regard to the amount of the compensation fee in addition to the postage paid in respect of such parcel, may be from time to time fixed by agreement between the Postmaster General and the British possession or foreign country from which the parcel is transmitted.

15.—(1) A parcel posted in or addressed to a country or place from or to which insured parcels are transmissible by post, and containing coin or any article of jewellery or any article not for the time being transmissible in an uninsured parcel to or from such country or place, shall not be conveyed by post unless the same is insured.

Compulsory Insurance.

(2) The following regulations shall apply to any such parcel if posted without insurance :—

(i) If such parcel be received at a British Post Office—

(a) such parcel shall be registered, and may be detained for that purpose ;

(b) such parcel shall be charged with such registration fee not exceeding sixpence as the Postmaster General shall direct, in addition to all other postage payable thereon.

(ii) If such parcel be posted at a British Post Office it shall be returned to the sender.

(iii) No compensation shall be payable in respect of the loss or damage of such parcel or the contents thereof.

16.—(1) The provisions hereinbefore contained with reference to compensation for loss or damage of parcels or articles enclosed therein or forming part thereof shall not apply to a parcel addressed to a country or place with the Postal Administration of which the Postmaster General has not for the time being an arrangement for the payment of compensation.

General provisions as to loss or damage.

(2) The Postmaster General may give effect to the provisions of this Warrant as to the loss or damage of articles enclosed in or forming part of parcels, out of such aids or supplies as may be from time to time provided and appropriated by Parliament for that purpose, but nothing contained in, or done under, or in pursuance of, this Warrant, shall render him liable, either personally or in his official capacity, to any action or other legal proceeding in respect of, or in consequence of, any such loss or damage, whether such loss or damage be occasioned by or arise from any act or neglect of any officer of the Post Office or any other person.

(3) The decision of the Postmaster General on all questions arising between him and any person claiming payment in respect of the loss or damage of any article enclosed in or forming part of a parcel shall be final and conclusive.

Prohibitions. 17. There shall not be posted or conveyed or delivered by post—

- (a) any parcel containing coin or bullion exceeding five pounds in value; or
- (b) any parcel containing any article or thing not authorised by the Customs or other laws or regulations of the British Islands, or of the place to which the parcel is addressed or of any country through which it may pass, or, if posted at a British Agency, by the Customs or other laws or regulations of the country in which the Agency is situate.

Non-compliance with regulations.

18. In any case not in this Warrant expressly provided for, where any parcel shall be posted or tendered for conveyance or transmitted by post, which in any respect infringes or fails to comply with the regulations herein contained or any of them, such parcel may be dealt with or disposed of in such manner as the Postmaster General may, in his discretion, direct or authorise.

Customs regulations.

19. Parcels intended to be transmitted by post under the provisions of this Warrant shall not be posted, forwarded, conveyed, or delivered, except subject to such regulations as are referred to in section 14 of the Post Office (Parcels) Act, 1882.

Application of inland parcel regulations.

20. Except where otherwise provided in this Warrant, the regulations for the time being applicable to inland parcels shall (so far as the same are applicable) apply to parcels transmissible by post under the provisions of this Warrant.

Remission of postage.

21. The Postmaster General may, in any case in which he may consider it just or reasonable so to do, remit any postage or any sum made payable under this Warrant.

Printing of warrant.

22. This Warrant shall be printed from time to time as amended by all Warrants made prior to the date of such printing.

23. The Warrants mentioned in the First Schedule hereto (so far as unrepealed) are hereby repealed. Repeal.

Provided that—

- (1) Where any provision of any Warrant not comprised in the said Schedule has been repealed by any Warrant hereby repealed such repeal shall not be affected by the repeal effected by this Warrant.
- (2) The repeal by this Warrant of any Warrant shall not affect—
 - (a) anything done or suffered before this Warrant comes into operation; or
 - (b) any legal proceeding commenced before this Warrant comes into operation in pursuance of any Warrant hereby repealed. And any such legal proceeding may be carried on and completed as if this Warrant had not been made.

24. This Warrant may be cited as “ The Foreign and Colonial Parcel Post Warrant, 1921.” Short title.

25. This Warrant shall come into operation on the 1st day of July, One thousand nine hundred and twenty-one. Commencement of warrant.

Dated this 30th day of June, One thousand nine hundred and twenty-one. Date.

James Parker,
J. Towyn Jones,
Two of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury.

F. G. Kellaway,
His Majesty's Postmaster General.
