

The British Commonwealth and Foreign Parcel Post Amendment (No. 1) Warrant 1952

Made	22nd January 1952
Laid before Parliament	24th January 1952
Coming into force	1st February 1952

We, the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, in exercise of all powers given to us by sections four, twelve, and eighty-two of the Post Office Act 1908 and of all other powers enabling us in this behalf, do, by this Warrant, made on the representation of His Majesty's Postmaster General (testified by his signing the same) and under the hands of two of us, the said Commissioners, order, direct and declare as follows:—

- 1.—(1) This Warrant shall be read as one with the British Commonwealth and Foreign Parcel Post Warrant 1950 (hereinafter called "the principal Warrant").
(2) The Interpretation Act 1889 applies to the interpretation of this Warrant as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.
2. In sub-paragraph (a) of paragraph (4) of regulation two of the principal Warrant (which provides that there shall not be posted or conveyed or delivered by post any parcel containing silver bullion or silver partly manufactured exceeding £20 in value), for the words "£20" there shall be substituted the words "£50".
3. This Warrant shall come into operation on the 1st day of February, 1952, and may be cited as "The British Commonwealth and Foreign Parcel Post Amendment (No. 1) Warrant, 1952".

Dated this 22nd day of January, 1952.

Herbert Butcher,
H. R. Mackeson,
Two of the Commissioners of
His Majesty's Treasury.

De La Warr,
His Majesty's Postmaster General.
17th January, 1952.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Warrant, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

This Warrant increases from £20 to £50 the maximum value for silver bullion or silver partly manufactured which may be sent abroad in a single parcel by parcel post. The Warrant comes into operation on the 1st of February, 1952.
